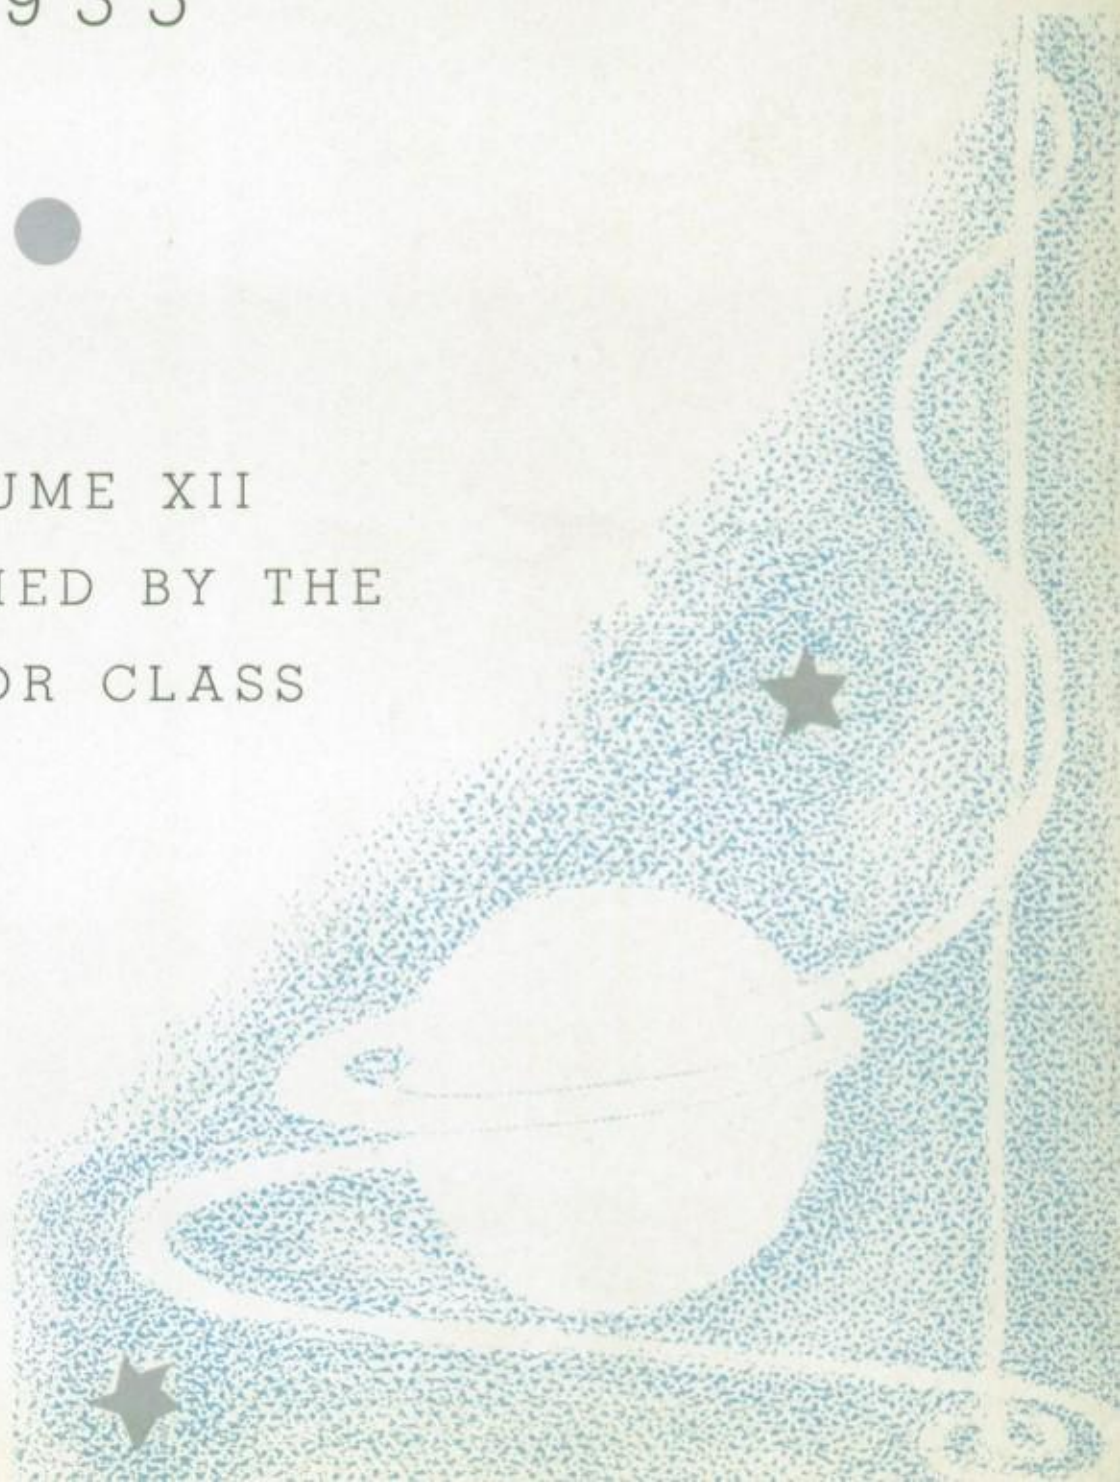
VOLUME XII

PUBLISHED BY THE

SENIOR CLASS



Foreword

Youth is in the Spotlight! The eyes of the world are focused upon them, looking to them to play their part in school with earnestness and honest endeavor; later on step out upon the stage of life to perform their part with the same spirit that carried them into the stream of light during their school days. It is youth that goes forward and carries the world along!

Dedication

We dedicate the '35 Crest to the Juniors, who will be in the spotlight next year; to the Sophomores, our largest class; to the Freshmen, who now know what it means to be students of P.H.S., and to the teachers who smooth the way for all classes as they progress.

OUR SUPERINTENDENT

"THE Spotlight reveals only the best of youth; it reflects the spirit of trained and disciplined minds, a spirit of faith and confidence. It reveals youth's deeper appreciation of those higher features that come from the constant pursuit of culture, the thinking of high thoughts and believing high things.

"Stout hearted and loyal to American ideals, your example will save what has been established; and the future generation will bless you for not having been afraid in an hour of peril and doubt."

—E. C. FISHER

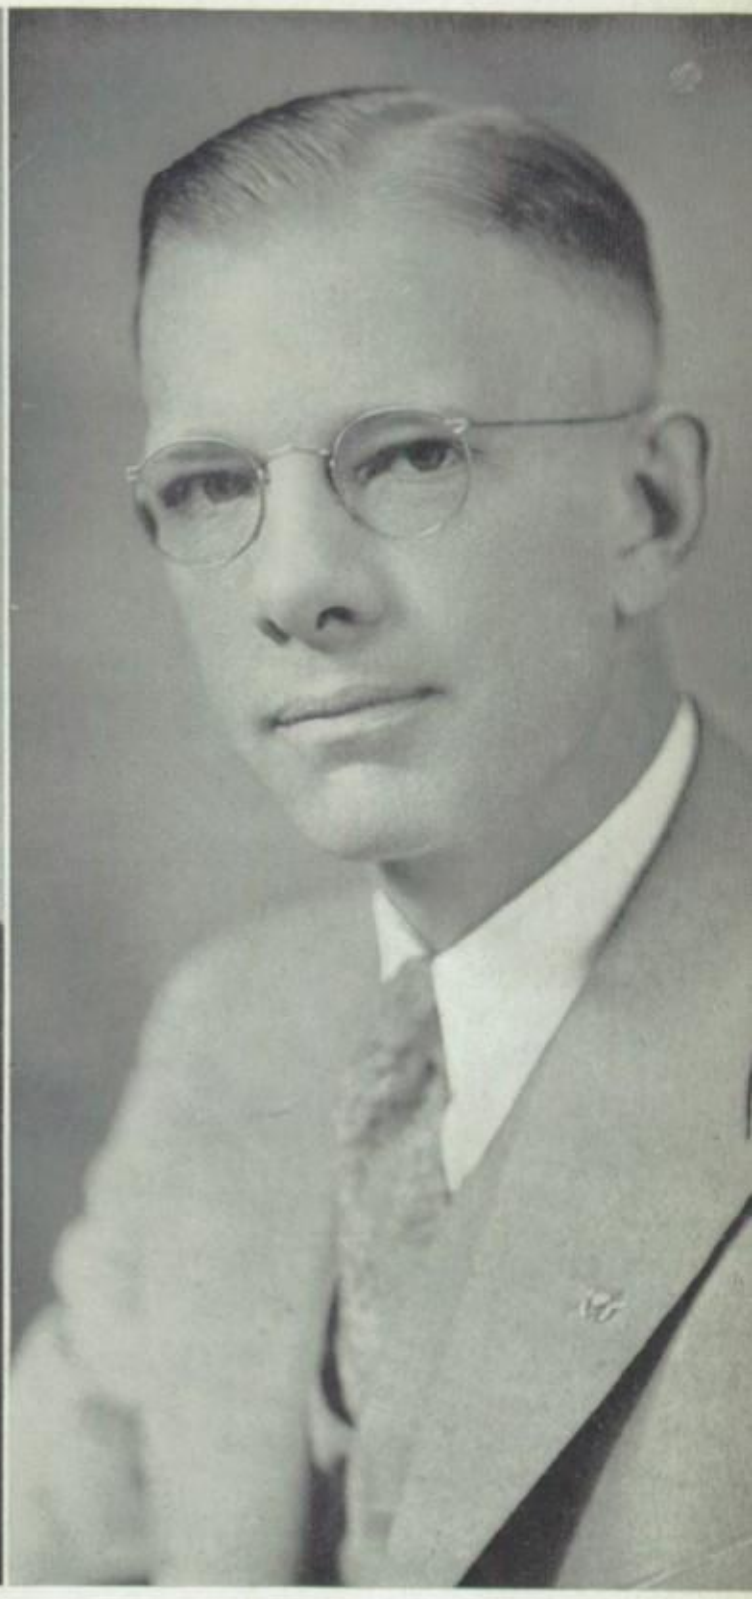
OUR PRINCIPAL

"Youth, pause a moment, silent, not in doubt, unawed, and with eyes unwavering—view the life that is to be wrought by thy efforts. Be persistent, keeping in view the final fulfillment of thy purpose.

Thou art a sculptor working in the white Parian marble of life. Leave thou a statue of true character, wrought by the tools of usefulness and love.

Thou art in the spotlight. Show thyself a master workman."

—J. H. Brewer



OUR DEANS

"To the Seniors who are leaving: May you keep your lamp of learning trimmed and filled and your love of scholarship flaming clear that you may more ably guide the feet of others along the highschool highway."

—ELEANOR B. WATSON, Dean of Girls.

"To attain materialistic triumph, man has exemplified Nature's manifestations of beauty, precision, co-ordination of effort, and harmonious relationships. In your quest for happiness, I commend these elements to you. Rugged individualism is a flop. What we need is a gracious gregarianism."

IN MEMORIAM

THE passing of our loved instructor, Miss Florence Cutright, is sincerely mourned by all who had the privilege and enduring satisfaction of membership in her classes. Her advice, encouragement and unfailing interest in her students have been the source of inspiration to many. With standards always of the highest, she spared not herself in her effort to bring up to her own lofty ideals the young people who came under her instruction.

Senior Class

THE closing of this school year will mark the closing of a wonderful chapter, a brilliant chapter, a never-to-be forgoten one. Our class can be justifiably proud of the record made in every line of endeavor; in music, art, dramatics; in the shop, in the kitchen or in sewing classes; in the science laboratory and in the gymnasium.

During our four years in Peoria High School, we have progressed from a large, bewildered group of Freshmen to a compact, self-assured Senior Class. Leaders in every one of these fields of activity have brought honor to our class and have paid worthy tribute to those before us by carrying on in a wonderful way.

National winners in dramatics and music have brought praise to the school as a whole. Presidents and officers of many activities have come from our number. We are proud that so many of us have been chosen for Charvice and Promerito, honor societies.

Our Senior Class Play, "Spooks," was applauded by all who saw it because of the great number of thrills supplied.

Precedents have been set for the coming classes. From our ranks have stepped forth the first girl president, who has proved herself as worthy as any boy. We have broken away from the custom of years and are being graduated on the athletic field, where more people may be present.

We all do not realize that for many of us graduation means a definite closing of this particular volume of life. No more chats with special classmates, no more shouting "Hello" to fifty people as we walk down the hall.

Scattered to the four winds, many of us will be separated from friends made during the four happy years here. Many of us will go on to college to make new friends and acquaintances.

We may open the new volume, that of the future, and see only the first page, but we cannot satisfy that element of curiosity in us to turn the pages further. However, we know, if we can count the past as an example, that the names of many who are being graduated with this class will be spelled in the capital letters of success.

Junior Class

HONORED are we, the Juniors of the Class of '36, to be the first Junior Class to have individual pictures in the Crest. Let us hope that, by so doing, we have established a precedent.

This year the Juniors contributed greatly to the success of our athletics with such outstanding heroes as Bob Leu, Deane Richardson, Art Shelton and many others.

The Honor Societies, Charvice and Promerito, also claim many of our Juniors with high scholastic ability.

The Junior Class was represented in no small numbers in the operetta this year. We were rightfully proud to have so many talented members among our ranks.

We were well represented with prominent Juniors on the Opinion, the Crest, Student Council and other organizations.

The annual Junior Prom, one of the gayest social events of the year, was held at the Inglaterra for the first time and was a notable success. Betty Jean Adams was the Prom Queen.

Our able class officers, Willard Huber, Mary Jean Thorne, Bob Lindig, and Jack Carney made every effort to have this Junior Class function properly.

We owe a great deal of credit to our class sponsors, Miss Bunch and Mr. Owen, who have helped so much in working with the class and making a success of all its undertakings.

Sophomore Class

THE Class of '37 has been very active, although not in the way that captures all the notice and praise. The meeting held this year was presided over by the former president. At that meeting the new officers were elected: Charles Gamble, president; Bud Briggs, vice-president; Jack Morrison, secretary; and Robert Keller, treasurer.

The Sophomore members of the Cue Club have presented numerous general assemblies and the entertainment for one social hour. The class representatives in Student Council are Ann La Teer, Dick Tunnicliff, Jack Morrison, and Charles Gamble. The Opinion Staff claims a number of gifted Sophomores as does the Science Club. A number of boys in our class will be a great help to the track team in the coming season this spring. The Junior Hi-Y, made up of fifteen sophomore boys, has been extra strong this year under the sponsorship of Mr. Clifford. Sophomores make up a very reasonable percentage of the Glee Club, A Cappella Choir, band, and orchestras.

This certainly seems to us to be a very constructive year in every way for the Sophomore Class and we hope our next years will be as active.

We are very thankful for our outstanding staff of teachers and we sincerely hope our sponsors, Mr. Sommers and Miss McConnell, will stick to us in the future as well as they have in the past.

Freshman Class

FRESHMEN! Yes, we are that looked-down-upon class that seems to flourish in spite of superior glances and remarks from upper classmen.

Of course the first semester we plodded along with only a vague idea of where we were going, but at last our class is organized. We have had better traveling and fewer bumps since we hitched our wagon to our stars, Miss Jones and Mr. Myers. We owe them our thanks for all their assistance and encouragement.

Our first class meeting was led by Mr. Myers, assisted by Miss Jones. We elected Dorothy Janssen, president. This was a new privilege, for, up to this time, the officers had been appointed by Mr. Brewer. In our second meeting, called to order by the president, we elected Freshmen representatives to Student Council.

The Freshman Class of this year is well represented in the various activities. Band, Orchestra, and Glee Club all have freshman members. Our class boasts of quite a few members in the Junior National Honor Society and also many prefects.

We are trying to make a success of our first year at Peoria High, and after that—well, it won't be very long until we, too, will be smiling condescendingly at the new, bewildered freshmen.

A Cappella Chorus

ONE of the most outstanding musical organizations in Illinois, the a cappella chorus of Peoria High School, has been twice winner of first place in the Big Twelve contest. The chorus has a membership of one hundred twenty, the largest chorus that Peoria High School has ever had.

An a cappella chorus is a chorus which sings without accompaniment of any kind. It is a mixed chorus and sings music written in four, six and eight parts.

The chorus has been greatly honored during the past year. They sang for the annual Association of Commerce Banquet held at the Armory on December thirteenth for a group of twenty-five hundred people. It was again honored by being asked to take part in an Association of Commerce program which was broadcast over WMBD on March twenty-ninth. In May of 1934 the chorus sang for the Illinois Booksellers and Stationers convention held at the Pere Marquette and on April third of this year was honored by being asked to sing for the same convention at its meeting. Among the many programs that have been presented by the chorus during the past year are also programs for the Peoria Teachers' Institute in November, at which time they sang the difficult cantata, "The American Ode" by Richard Kountz. A Vesper Service was presented at Westminster Church early in the fall. At the meeting of the Peoria Division of the Illinois State Teachers' Association in March, the chorus presented a program at the opening session held at the Palace Theater. Several broadcasts over WMBD have been given this year. Programs for P.T.A. meetings, mothers' clubs, luncheon clubs and assemblies have also been given.

In the fall, through the assistance of Mr. Brewer, a set of elevated platforms was purchased for this group. The platforms have been a very wonderful help to the chorus in that every member can now easily see the director and also each person can be seen by the audience. The picture presented by the members as they stand on the platforms and sing is indeed a very impressive one.

Glee Clubs

A GLEE is an unaccompanied song of English origin, hence the name glee club. Clubs were originally organized for the purpose of singing glees, and such organizations have been formed for centuries; they have been developed and improved until today we have glee clubs in nearly every high school in existence; also they may be found in grade schools, colleges and innumerable organizations and clubs. Such organizations have a twofold purpose: the first to study and enjoy the best there is in music; and the second to present such music for the enjoyment of others.

Peoria High is fortunate in that it has two very fine glee clubs which are doing much to promote and develop a better feeling of cooperation and school spirit among its members within the groups as well as in the student body itself.

The girls' glee club has an enrollment of seventy-eight junior and senior girls. The girls learn and sing some of the most beautiful music written for women's voices and arranged for three and four parts. The glee clubs always enter the Big Twelve contests and have been first and second place winners. The girls give many programs during the year. In addition to these programs this year the glee club is joining the girls choruses and the glee clubs from the other high schools to sing the beautiful and difficult lyric cantata "Dryad's Kisses" at the annual May Festival.

The boys' glee club too is another outstanding group. It has a membership of about sixty. This group was honored early in the fall by being invited to sing for the annual banquet of the Illinois Schoolmasters Association. The boys sing at many meetings and on special programs. They too enter the Big Twelve contests in the spring.

Small Ensembles

DURING the past two years there has been a movement encouraged by the Music Educators' National Conference to organize small ensembles in the High School in addition to the glee clubs and choruses.

Last year a group of eight singers called the Madrigal singers was organized. To our knowledge it was the first group of this kind ever to be formed in high school. It met with immediate popularity and has become an organization very much in demand to furnish programs outside of school. These singers follow the old English custom of sitting around tables as they sing. They sing mostly Madrigals, the first songs written to be sung unaccompanied—hence the name.

In the fall of 1934 more ensembles were organized, one of which is the Boys Double Quartette. This organization also sings unaccompanied. They are a lively bunch of fellows who love to sing and do serious and light numbers equally well. The boys have been very enthusiastically received and have been kept busy during their leisure time singing for numerous organizations. They opened the school broadcast program by presenting the first of a series of weekly radio programs. On April 1, they were honored by being asked to attend a rehearsal of the Orpheus Club and during the intermission sang a group of numbers for the club.

The third group to be formed was the Girls Trio. It is a different type of organization and too has been very warmly received and has been doing very commendable work.

These organizations all took part in the Big Twelve contest held at Pekin on May 3. Every member of these small ensembles has been chosen through special try-outs because of his ability to sing, his desire to learn the best there is in music, and his willingness and his ability to cooperate.

This is an activity done entirely outside of school; all rehearsals are held after school and these groups should be highly commended for their accomplishments.

Student Council

By entering whole-heartedly into the activities of school affairs, Student Council has again demonstrated that it occupies a vital place in the affairs of Peoria High School. This year a new type of social hour has been sponsored in which more students participate. In addition to the matinee dance, some other form of entertainment has been presented in the auditorium during the social hour. The wonderful response which this new plan has met far exceeded the hopes of those who were responsible for its introduction.

The Maroon and Blacks were printed, and for the second year a student directory was published. A supplementary issue to the directory was printed the second semester, containing names of all new mid-semester students. Two other worthy projects of council have been the purchasing of a camera for the use of school organizations, and donating money to the band uniform fund.

The elections of student council members and officers follow all regulations and requirements of voting in civic elections, thus giving the students valuable education for later life. Also, steps have been taken toward creating a greater feeling of friendliness among the student bodies of the Peoria high schools by the organization of an Intra-City Student Council consisting of members from the student councils of the three high schools.

The Book Exchange which has efficiently served hundreds of students has been under the capable management of Willette Slonneger and Eileen Reed.

Other activities that have been successfully carried on are: planning pep assemblies, helping select paid assemblies, painting the direction signs in the corridors, writing editorials for the Opinion, providing material for the prefects, and making announcements in assemblies. The Council has enjoyed its various activities and fully appreciates the wonderful cooperation it has received from the faculty and the student body.

The Student Body Guard

THE Student Body Guard system is the law enforcing organization of Peoria High School. Since its beginning, six years ago, it has rapidly increased in number until it is now one of the largest and most outstanding groups in the school.

The system is composed of the magistrate, Harold Howells; the pretorian, Mary Lou Degel; and ten captains, one for each hour of the day, whose duty it is to take charge of all prefects on duty during his hour. It is the duty of the prefects to maintain order throughout the building. They do this by seeing that all students going through the halls have properly signed passes at all times except during the regular four minute interval for passing between classes. Visitors, who have registered in the office, are conducted around the building by the prefects. Another very important function is the collecting of attendance slips each hour from every class in order that absence lists may be compiled by the office. Occasionally notices must be taken around to the teachers. This is done by the prefects. They also run errands for the office and the deans. The cleanliness of the building and grounds must be supervised and traffic regulated between classes. In addition to these daily duties, the prefects serve during the regular social hours, collecting tickets and maintaining discipline in the hallways.

The members who perform these many duties willingly and capably are among the best in the school. Their grades are watched and anyone failing in any subject is immediately dropped. These fine students are able to carry out these sometimes unpleasant tasks only through the cooperation of the entire student body and the excellent response which they have given has enabled this group to attain its present success.

Senior National Honor

MEMBERSHIP into Senior National Honor is attained for achievement in four lines: scholarship, character, leadership, and service.

Students who stand in the upper third of the senior class in scholarship are considered eligible for membership. However, not more than fifteen per cent of the entire class can be elected from those who are qualified. The other qualities necessary for membership are determined by the student's extra-curricular activities, his character, his general attitude toward study, and his ability to cooperate. All these attributes are considered and the candidates are voted upon by the faculty.

Senior National Honor is nation-wide in its scope. Its members are recognized in all schools as those who have obtained the best results from their high school career.

Junior National Honor

THE Junior National Honor Society resembles the Senior Society in its morals although there are some differences between the two groups. Membership in the Junior Society is taken from the Freshman and Sophomore classes. More stress is laid on scholarship than on leadership and service; this difference is due to the fact that the lower class members have not had as much opportunity to display leadership and service as the upper class members. High character is also a quality required for membership. At the assembly when the newly elected members are presented to the school, they are given a bow of four ribbons; gold for scholarship, white for character, green signifying leadership and blue, service.

Charvice

Marion Putnam, Pres.; Mary Gill, V.-Pres.; Lucille McClintick, Sec.-Treas.

CHARVICE is the girls' honorary society composed of Juniors and Seniors. The girls are chosen for their character, loyalty, friendliness, and service. Elections are held each semester.

The responsibilities of Charvice are many. The girls take charge of the Lost and Found, which is open every hour of the day; Charvice tries to be of service by assisting Miss Fisher in the library; the afternoon members have ably been in charge of ushering at P.T.A. meetings, and plays.

Our first initiation was held at Amy Lou Harmon's in December. Our second semester initiation was held at the home of Virginia Thulin. Our Charvice sponsors are: Miss Hayes, head sponsor; Miss Ottenheimer, head of formal initiations; Miss Coppock, head of morning meetings; Miss Wilde, adviser of our weekly column, "Charvice Chatter"; Miss Wilson, head of the afternoon group; Miss Boynton, head of the informal initiations and menus for our spreads.

Promerito

PROMERITO was founded in 1920 as an honor society for boys. Membership is awarded to boys for their service and loyalty to Peoria High School. They are those who have shown unusual activity in extra-curricular clubs and those who have shown leadership around school. Candidates are nominated by members of the faculty and are voted upon by the board of control, composed of faculty members. All sophomore, junior and senior boys are eligible. Members of Promerito are always active in serving the school. They usher at plays, assemblies, and Parent-Teachers' meetings. The sponsors for this year are Mr. Swanson and Mr. Westhoff.

French Club

Kathryn Franks, Pres.; Mary Jean Ballance, V.-Pres.; Margaret Prime, Sec.; Betsy Hunter, Treas.

Fleur de Lys is one of the best organizations at school, from a standpoint of interest, experience, and enjoyment derived from it. Its main object is to promote French, conversationally, and to acquaint one with French customs and manners.

The meetings are held in the evening at the homes of members, several times a year. The programs include Guignols, treasure hunts, cards, games and songs.

As a grand farewell every year a banquet is given with some honored guest as the main speaker. Miss Bunch is the sponsor.

German Club

Gabriele Martig, Pres.; Howard Lambert, V.-Pres.; Evelyn Schott, Sec.-Treas.

THE members of "Der Deutsche Verein" have successfully and interestingly carried on their work this year under the direction of Fraulein Ziegler.

The meetings were held at various homes in the evenings. For entertainment a comedy play entitled "Einer Muss Heiraten" was presented. Members of the club gave very instructive as well as interesting talks on the lives and works of Johann Goethe, Richard Wagner, and Friedrich Schiller. German songs, including many popular folk songs, were sung. Games entirely conducted in German were played. At several of the meetings Charles Mercer, who had travelled throughout most of Germany during the last summer, gave several interesting talks.

Science Club

Art Allen, Pres.; Emyleen Tess, V.-Pres.; Mary Ringness, Sec.; Harold Phillips, Treas.; Art Weers, Sgt.-at-Arms

THE Science Club has enjoyed a very successful year. The purpose, to give scientific knowledge in an interesting manner, has been attained through the earnest cooperation of both the student-members and the sponsors.

Many interesting programs have been presented on various subjects of scientific interest pertaining to physics, chemistry, astronomy, biology, and medicine. Although these programs have been given largely by student members, outside speakers and our sponsors have also participated. Several educational trips have been taken, also through various local business institutions. The meetings have been well attended, and great interest has been shown among all the students. Membership in the club is not restricted. Any student interested in science is welcome to join. The sponsor is Mr. Epstein.

Social Science Club

Lois Shanemeyer, Pres.; Elizabeth Duggins, V.-Pres.; Dorothy Cation, Sec.-Treas.

THE Social Science Club was organized in 1923 for the purpose of stimulating interest in national and international problems, and particularly for encouraging the members to become active and intelligent citizens.

Conditions in Europe regarding warfare, problems of the day, police systems of the United States, courts of the United States, women's suffrage, citizenship and other topics of vital interest have been presented and discussed in the meetings. Several business and professional men have addressed the group. The "Pathfinder" is the official publication of the club. A file of the publications is kept by Mr. Y. A. Heghin, our able sponsor. The annual picnic of the club is held in May.

TRI-S is a Girl Reserve club, affiliated with the Y.W.C.A. Since 1920, this club has meant to P.H.S. girls the opportunity for friends and high ideals. The founders of the club interpreted the three sides of life—physical, mental and spiritual—to mean Social, Service, and Spiritual growth and activities, and for these they named the club Tri-S.

Miss Frances Vander Linden, the Girl Reserve secretary of the Peoria "Y" has given much time, energy and enthusiasm toward the activities of the club. Mrs. C. H. Gamble, the chairman of the G. R. committee, and her committee have stood by the club faithfully.

Meetings were held the first and third Tuesdays at the downtown "Y" and included such activities as service work, handcraft, devotional services, spreads, scavenger hunts with Hi-Y, practical suggestions on a girl's room, her clothes, health habits, college, etc., and programs with outside speakers. The committee in charge of these programs consisted of Frances Munea, Kathleen Allen, Evelyn Kilgus, Hazel Louise Jacobs, and Dorothy Felsman.

An annual event looked forward to eagerly by all G. R.'s is the Christmas Vesper Service, held this year at the Central Christian church. This was sponsored by the city inter-club council.

Probably the most outstanding event of the year was the Central Illinois Girl Reserve Conference held in Peoria February 16 and 17. The theme was "Meeting Today's Challenge." Peoria girls were hostesses to members of clubs in sixteen towns.

Each activity, in some way, contributed toward the G. R. purpose: "To face life squarely, and find and give the best."

Senior Hi-Y

Nick Kent, Pres.; Homer Keller, V.-Pres.; Frank Cannady, Sec.; Winfield Jones, Treas.

THE pledge for the Hi-Y is to create, maintain and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character. While the group is composed of Peoria High boys, it is sponsored by the local Y.M.C.A. Any boy, regardless of his nationality or religious affiliation, is eligible to membership. In addition to the regular meetings, several special meetings were held during the year. The Central Hi-Y was in charge of the joint meeting with Manual, Kingman and the Community Center Hi-Y's. A social scavenger hunt was planned and carried out with the senior Tri-S. The basketball team was the main athletic endeavor.

Junior Hi-Y

Charles Gamble, Pres.; Budd Briggs, V.-Pres.; Joe Chittick, Sec.-Treas.

THE Junior Hi-Y of 1934-1935 was very active. At the first meeting officers were elected, Junior Jones being elected secretary-treasurer. Jones became a junior in the middle of the year so his position was filled by Joe Chittick. At a later meeting it was decided that the club members sell hot dogs and candy bars at the Thanksgiving game to get funds to pay the way for one member, Charles Gamble, to attend the Older Boys' Conference at Freeport, Illinois.

Throughout the year the club had very interesting addresses made by Reverend Lindbergh, J. Hodenadel, Willis Brown, C. H. Gamble, and David Owens. Equally interesting discussions were prepared for the club by the sponsor, Mr. J. E. Clifford.

The Junior Hi-Y has been a success in every way this season with the untiring, constructive help of Mr. Clifford.

Visual Aids

Harold Yost, Pres.; Dave Steinbach, Sec.-Treas.

FROM the cave man's crude picture language to present day movies is a long story. However, if dreams come true, P.H.S. will add another highway toward streamline education through modern visualization equipment, such as, movies, slides, film strips, still films, maps, charts, posters, mounted prints, photographic laboratory equipment, etc.,—material for all departments. A school with a student population of over two thousand has such possibilities.

The Visual Aids Club, agreeing with many others that "Seeing is believing," favors such a program. If material is properly used, it will make school work more interesting and intelligible. It will give students vivid and lasting impressions of what is taught, and will bring them into personal contact with the world in which they live.

All students like educational movies. Through the purchase of the Eastman Classroom Film, "Ocean Liners," which was deposited with the University of Illinois Visual Aids Center, our school is permitted to use all films deposited there, a very economical arrangement. With a semester or annual advance schedule the films desired may be obtained when needed. Club members learn to operate portable projectors and deliver classroom service. Fifteen teachers this year took advantage of this service in 60 reels for 3300 students.

The boys are grateful to the Athletic Department for purchasing a used model "C" Eastman projector through Mr. Herke's recommendation. Candy sales and a Social Hour Movie okeyed by the Student Council sponsor, Mr. Williams, furnished other sources for revenue. Principal Brewer and Superintendent Fisher are for us. The green lights are on. The Visual Aids Club is willing to serve you. Let's go.

Projection Crew

THE projection crew is in charge of all activities involving the projection booth. This includes the showing of motion picture films on the standard film projects, the operation of spot lights when needed, and the operation of the public address system.

The public address system, which is the Senior Memorial for the Class of 1931, is used for the playing of phonograph records while the students are entering and leaving the auditorium at the daily assemblies. It is also used for amplifying the voices of speakers and singers whenever necessary. This activity requires a different crew for every lunch period for each daily assembly.

The projection crew sponsored several movies this year, the proceeds of which went into the projection fund for the purchase of a sound projector.

Charles Ringel is student projection crew boss, and Mr. Epstein is the faculty sponsor.

Stage Crew

SEVEN boys comprise the stage crew. It is their duty to care for the stage and stage equipment. They have charge of the lighting and curtains whenever the auditorium is used.

When a play or operetta is to be given, the crew, with the help of those directly interested in each particular production, build the stage setting. The amount of work entailed is often more than is generally known. The boys may have to work until the early hours, but they do it willingly—even "get a kick" out of it.

They serve gratuitously except for donations received from the larger productions. For these and for the help received in building stage sets, they are always grateful to all concerned.

Opinion

THE Peoria Opinion, official newspaper of Peoria High School, is completing its forty-sixth year of publication, having been started in 1891 with Julia Proctor White as editor.

The Opinion was printed as a monthly magazine until 1925 when it was changed to a six-colum newspaper. In 1930, having purchased three typesetting machines and other equipment which made the change possible, the Opinion came out as a five-column, eight-page paper.

Since then the paper has made great improvements until at present it is considered to be one of the best equipped high school papers in the world, with the equipment of a modern newspaper included in its shop.

Recognition has been given the Opinion by Quill and Scroll, who rated the Opinion All-American for two years, National Scholastic Press Association, who rated the Opinion first class honor rank, and the New York Herald Tribune make-up staff, which complimented the Opinion on having "a near professional make-up."

Of the activities of the staff members, trips to national and state conventions are made; seven workers attended the National Scholastic Press Association convention in Kansas City, Mo., in October.

At present more than a hundred students of journalism, newswriting, advertising and printing work in the "dark-hole" every afternoon after school and on Thursday evenings in order to get the paper out.

The editorial staff, under the direction of Earl English, teacher of journalism and printing and Miss Dorothy Crowder, newswriting teacher, is headed by Fred Vance, editor, with Margaret Downing as assistant editor; Jim Rindfuss and Joe Hession, news editors; Dick Reyburn, copy editor; Virginia Sefton and Ella Lawton, assistant copy editors; Bud Briggs, sport editor; Lois Dobbins, society editor; Mac Harris, editorial page editor; Elizabeth Stuffings and Ruth Greiner, proofreaders.

Sport writers assisting Briggs are Don Wollett, Art Szold, Bob Chamberlain, Verne Staley, Jack Martin and Deane Richardson. Society assistants are Jane Thompson and Jeanne Swann.

The business staff, which has set a new high in advertising space sold since the "boom" days before 1929, is headed by Bernard Wrigley, assisted by Don Wollett and Howard Hudson. Also in the business department are Lyle Halfhill and Earnest Haefli, mailing managers, and Ben Shelley in charge of advertising layout.

The Opinion's mechanical staff, workers who help set the type, make up pages, roll page mats, etc., is made up of Dick Reyburn, Fred Vance, Lyle Halfhill, Earnest Haefli, William Brown, Howard Andrews, Abe Terence, Bob Immel, Bill Dusenberry, Paul Donovan, Tom Large, Bob Chamberlain, Perry Knobloch, Howard Hudson, and Charles Linton.

Columnists are Wallace Chessman, "Bits O' Gossip;" Janice Reagan, "Glancing Backwards;" Virginia Sefton, "Birthdays;" Jane Thompson, "Seen in the Shops;" Mac Harris, "Mad Dogs and Englishmen;" Blanche Veath, "Central Hallways;" Virginia Thulin, "Charvice Chatter;" Tom Hunter, "Promerito Prattle;" Wm. S. (Bill) Conway, famous author of "Soap Suds;" Jim Rindfuss, "Inklings;" and Joe Hession, conductor of the interview column appearing weekly.

Besides these workers who have a special "job" to do, members of the printing classes set headlines, ads and do general press-room chores. Stories for the Opinion are written by members of the journalism and newswriting classes.

Showing its willingness to cooperate with the various departments of the school, the Opinion has printed messages from the superintendent, principal and the deans, editorials written by the student council, and has also given publicity to every phase of school life and extra curricular activities.

THE Advanced Orchestra of the Peoria High School is quite well known in the city. Although there are only twenty-six members, the instrumentation is complete and well balanced.

Work in the orchestra affords both enjoyment and experience to the members, and gives knowledge of many of the best orchestral compositions. The organization has played for two very important school events; the Senior Class Play, "Spooks," and the Operetta, "The Marriage of Nannette." On April 10 they played at the Inglaterra for the All State Parent-Teachers' Association and in May they gave their Annual Concert at the Roosevelt Junior High School. For the first time, the students in the advanced orchestra will receive one-half credit towards college entrance. Mr. Bradley directs the orchestra.

Beginning Orchestra

Don Dupuy, Pres.; Jack Kronemeyer, V.-Pres.; Elvera Lenkemann, Sec.-Treas.
Mary Olsen, Librarian

THE Beginners Orchestra, also under the direction of Mr. Irving Bradley, has twenty-four members this year. This is the largest enrollment since its organization in 1924. In addition to giving valuable experience and much pleasure to its members, it also prepares them for advanced orchestra and the school band. To be able to qualify for either of these organizations is an honor for any student to be proud of. The Beginners Orchestra meets every Tuesday and Thursday and anyone interested may join. We are very much in need of more stringed instruments, such as violin, cello, and string bass. These would help to balance the instrumentation. One-fourth credit is received for each year's work.

Band

Walter Jameson, Pres.; Betty Fox, V.-Pres.; John Hart, Sec. and Treas.; Jane Dallam, Librarian

THE Peoria High School Band has completed another successful year. The school board has graciously purchased for the band many delicate instruments, namely: oboes, bass clarinets, bass horns, bassoons, baritones and baritone saxophones. Four new uniforms were purchased this year with the aid of the Student Council to outfit the new members who entered the band last fall.

The band played at all of the home football games this year, including a special drill with Manual at the annual "Thanksgiving Day" game. They played at all the most important basketball games which were held at the Armory.

This year, for the first time, the Peoria High School Band entered the District Contest. They succeeded in placing in the second division of Class A bands. Springfield and Quincy were rated in the first division while Pekin and Central were rated in the second. It was the band's first entry in such a contest and creditable work was done. The soloists of the band were also successful in solo events in that each of the contestants placed. Tom Moran and Fred Silzer were both rated in Group I of the cornet division. Fred Gedge was rated in Group I of flute division, and Harold Johnson, in Group II of the clarinet division. Kline Richardson, contestant in French horn, placed in Group III.

The band played many concerts this year including a matinee concert at Theodore Roosevelt Junior High, two concerts at Parent-Teachers Association, and their annual concert with Manual and Kingman in May. They also placed in two assemblies at school.

The enrollment this year totals seventy-eight members in the concert band, and eighteen members in the second band.

The band meets first hour every day and is under the direction of Mr. T. Irving Bradley, who has worked very diligently to make the band a success, and deserves much credit for the work accomplished.

THE Cue Club, founded in 1931, is the dramatic organization for freshmen and sophomores. It is one of the most popular clubs at Peoria High, having at the present time an active membership of 120 students. Its purpose is to develop appreciation of dramatic art, to discover and cultivate dramatic talent among its members, and to prepare for membership in Jusendra, the dramatic club for juniors and seniors. Cue Club meets regularly on the first Friday of the school month, and, after a brief business meeting, a program in charge of a program committee is presented. This usually consists of a one-act play, coached by a student, under the supervision of the club sponsor. The cast and all working committees are club members. However, the program may consist of miscellaneous numbers or of lectures by guest speakers on topics pertaining to dramatics.

One of the most enjoyable meetings of the year was the one at which Mr. George Burns gave an interesting talk on "The Art of Make-Up," accompanied by practical demonstrations.

During the year 1934-1935, besides giving an interesting program at each of the ten regular meetings, the club furnished three assembly programs; in addition to this, it presented the first "Social Hour Program" to an assembly of over 600 students, thereby demonstrating the practicability of having an auditorium program for students not desiring to attend matinee dances.

Much enthusiasm has been shown by both morning and afternoon divisions of the club, and a fine spirit of cooperation has been developed among its members.

Miss Mamie McGrath is the sponsor of the A.M. Division and Miss Cora Maxfield, sponsor of the P.M. Division.

Upper Right — "Our Aunt from California" — Bohl, Caplin, Topping, Peters, Haney, Griggs, Vance.

Lower Right — "Why Mrs. Gaskill Didn't Hire a Cook"—McClellan, Miller, Becker, Ogden, Townsend, Ernsberger.

Cue Club Plays

THE little play, "A Christmas Surprise," coached by Mary Jo Jaynes, was given for the December meeting of the afternoon Cue Club and was repeated for the social hour. Anna Bristol, Dorothy Apland, and Mary Olive McNamara, as three school girls, carry through the action of the play most convincingly.

"Why Mrs. Gaskell Didn't Hire a Cook," coached by Lucy Cobb, was given as one of the regular programs of the club, and was also repeated on the social hour program. Mrs. Gaskell and her mother, played by Mary Miller and Mary Olive McNamara, interview several applicants for the position of cook in their home. The wide variety of character shown in the applicants gave opportunity for dramatic ability to Louise Mary Ogden, Pauline Becker, Shirley Ernsberger, Helen Townsend, and Ruth McClellan.

"Weinies on Wednesdays" a farce presenting a family entanglement was coached by Katherine Baer. The cast consisted of Douglas Sherwin, Margaret Hootman, Mary Adams, Batch Conolly, and Eleanor Newman. It was presented at regular meeting of morning Cue Club December 7, and was repeated for "Social Hour" February 1. It was again repeated for the Franklin School Mothers' Club February 19.

The Foster family entertains Madame Castinelli, noted dramatic soprano. The worried hostess has had all her mental qualms for nothing, for Madame is revealed as an intensely human character with a passion for "weinies" for breakfast.

"Our Aunt from California," an exceedingly funny farce, was coached by Lorraine Gustafson and Betty Johnson and presented at a regular meeting of morning Cue Club February 1.

Jusendra

Ray Fraser, Pres.; Max Custer, V.-Pres.; Dorothy Hendrichs, Sec.; Amylu Harmon, Treas

THE program of Jusendra this year has been enlarged to include not only all phases of dramatics, but also the various forms of forensic activity as well. Membership is open to all juniors and seniors.

There are two distinct purposes of the club's program: first, the dramatic, to learn something of the theatre; second, the forensic, to encourage all other forms of speech activities such as oratory, both original and declamatory, extemporaneous speaking, interpretative poetry reading, and humorous and dramatic reading. Any club member is eligible to try out for any play or speech contest, according to the point system, if his work is satisfactory.

The aim of the club this year has been to provide a schedule of activities sufficiently comprehensive to provide opportunities for all members to test their abilities in many different lines.

In addition to the regular monthly meetings, Jusendra this year has presented matinee programs open to the entire student body and the public, six programs for the school assemblies and five evening performances. The club has also participated in eight inter-school speech contests and has furnished programs at meetings of various civic organizations.

Jusendra

P. M. Division: Walter Jameson, Pres.; Dorothy Deuell, V.-Pres.; Margaret Prime, Sec.; Harold Feigenbaum, Treas.

PROGRAMS at the regular monthly meetings have included talks by Mr. William A. Wittick, prominent business man and amateur playwright; Mrs. H. Ray Dunshee, director of the Junior Department of the Peoria Players; Mr. Frederic Oakley, newspaperman prominent in the activities of the Peoria Players, and Mrs. Leon Sutherland, director for the Peoria Players. A program of reading was furnished by Mr. Harry Iler. A Christmas play "The Christmas Burglar" was presented at the December meeting.

Public matinee performances have included a four-act play, "The Touchdown," directed by Dorothy Deuell, and "The Flattering Word," directed by Tom Hunter. Both of these plays were given at two performances. Other afternoon programs have included preliminary speech contests.

The evening performances have included the "Wishbone Revue," a vaudeville show in November; "The Tavern," major evening production given at two performances early in May; two evening speech contests during February, and an all-boys musical comedy in June.

Speech contests in which Jusendra has sponsored participation by its members include the contests at MacMurray College, Illinois Wesleyan University, state district contests at Macomb Normal, "Big Twelve" meet at Pekin, the state National Forensic League tournament held at the Chicago Y.M.C.A. College, and the national N.F.L. contests held at Kent College, Kent, Ohio. Many honors were won by Jusendra members during this competitive season.

"FLATTERING WORD"

"TOUCHDOWN"

"Flattering Word"

"THE Flattering Word" was produced by Jusendra as one of its matinee performances. The matinee productions were something of an experiment this year. They have been produced entirely under student direction, and have been very successful. They not only provided entertainment for those students who wished to see them, but they also provided a chance for experience to students in acting and in producing.

The cast of "The Flattering Word" was small. The work of Harold Feigenbaum, who substituted upon a week's notice, deserves mention. The other parts were taken by Isabelle Anicker, Betty Jean Adams, Kline Richardson, and Evelyn Haller. Isabele Anicker and Betty Jean Adams were elected to Dramatic Honor Society for their work in this play. It was coached by Tom Hunter, a senior.

"Touchdown"

"TOUCHDOWN," a four-act comedy farce, presented by Jusendra to two capacity audiences on the fifteenth and sixteenth of January, comprised an experiment in having a four-act play both student-acted and student-coached.

As the plot of the play unfolds, Grant Hayden, a popular college senior, hearing of his father's financial misfortunes, attempts to win the Arizona Park prize for sculpture in order that his sickly brother, Bob, may continue at Preston. Bob, knowing nothing of the reason for Grant's ambition, berates him soundly for his lack of interest in school football and the glory of Preston. The plot untangles, however, with Grant winning the prize and also playing on the football team. A pompous, poetical school teacher in love with a meek professor; a pair of gushing twins, inseparable (much to Coach Clarke's discomfort) ; a lisping, giggling girl, the object of a fat boy's affections—these furnish laughter throughout the play.

CONTESTANTS

Top Row—Klopfenstein, Lund, Miss Iler, Anicker, Galvin, Young.

The Tavern

"THE Tavern," a two-act comedy presented by Jusendra as its big evening production of the year, was written by George M. Cohan. The play had the most expensive royalty of any play produced at Peoria High in recent years. It starred John Greer and was coached by Mr. Sammis.

On a wild and stormy night there arrives at a lonely tavern a romantic vagabond, a homeless woman, and the Governor of the State and his family, who have been held up by footpads at a neighboring crossroads. Suspicion develops as to the identity of each of the characters in turn. To the vagabond it is deliciously like a drama, and he delights in directing the familiar characters in their parts. Finally the keeper of a neighboring sanitarium takes certain of the characters back home, and the cause of the humorous mixups is made clear.

CONTESTANTS

These students are qualified to be sent to represent Peoria High School at contests, some of which are: Jacksonville Invitational Meet, District and State Contests, Illinois Division of the National Forensic League, Illinois Wesleyan Contest, Big Twelve, and the National Speech Tournament. In order to be eligible for the National Contest, contestants must have won either first or second place in the Big Twelve, the State Contest, or the State Division of the N.F.L. For the past four years Peoria High School has sent contestants to the "Nationals." Dorothy Deuell and Margaret Lund have attended two of them and are eligible again this year. Dorothy was in the semi-finals in dramatic declamation in 1934 and Margaret placed in the finals in humorous declamation. Betty Kopp and Doreen Young have had contest experience in humorous and oratory respectively. Beginners this year are: Lorraine Waggoner and Betty Adams in dramatic declamation; Isabel Anicker, Deva Galvin, and Jean Klopfenstein in original oratory; Max Custer and Isabel Anicker in poetry; Audrey Bunting in humorous declamation; Deva Galvin and Dorothy Cation in extempore speaking. Dorothy Deuell and Margaret Lund have entered new divisions this year; namely, in humor and oratory respectively.

"Marriage of Nannette"

"THE Marriage of Nannette," a comic opera in three acts, by Louis Wordson Curtis was presented by the Combined Glee Clubs in the High School Auditorium on March 14 and 15. It was coached by Mr. Arthur L. Epstein, dramatic director, and Miss Katherine Jackson, musical director. Miss Carey was accompanist. The dances were under the direction of Mrs. Epstein. Mr. Walter Jameson designed the stage set which was constructed with his help by Mr. Epstein, Mr. Westoff, Mr. Stephens, Mr. Shepherd, the stage crew and members of the cast.

The little village of Champs de Fleur is alive with interest and the villagers are busily engaged in decorating the courtyard of the Inn as the curtain opens on the first act. The Duke de Ante (Bill Reinken) is to arrive at any moment for his marriage to the beautiful Countess de Martigney (Wanda Jennings). The inn keeper, Madame Zenobie (Dorothy Hendricks), is busy preparing the inn for the distinguished guest and his party. Her daughter, Nannette, (Carolyn Catcott), is not so much interested in the approaching wedding as she is in her lover, a village youth, René (Bill Ewing). Zenobie is determined that her daughter shall make a better marriage than to a penniless peasant and so sends René away and Nannette to work to prepare for the wedding. The scene suddenly takes on an entirely different appearance as four very dangerous looking Highwaymen creep cautiously onto the stage. They are Zenobie's son, Edmond (Carl Appell), and his accomplices, Roderique (Jack Heschong), Baptiste (Charles Anderson), and Jean (Bernard Wrigley). Zenobie learns that this daring group have kidnaped the Countess and have hidden her in an old castle. She now plans to marry Nannette to the Duke disguised as the Countess.

A loud ringing is heard as the Town Crier (Frank Reichelderfer) appears, bringing the news that Frederic, Duc d'Antin (Bill Reinken) and his party, Madelon, his daughter (Virginia Owen), Hilaire, the steward (M. Wooleyhan), and nephew, Henri (W. Jameson), are approaching. Reporello (Dick Fruehauf), the Gypsy Chief, and his band enter. The chief asks his favorite, Gitana (Mary Gill), to sing and dance for the Duke with the chorus of dancers joining. Santo, the pet bear (Lynn Marquess) also dances. All the villagers and gypsies go, leaving Henri and Gitana alone. Henri asks her to tell his fortune. She tells him that there is a new and true love very near. The Duke now learns that the Countess has been kidnaped by ruffians during the night. Everyone offers to help in a search for her. After they have gone, Nannette and René are alone in the yard when the Countess herself appears. She asks them not to tell that she is here because she wants to surprise the Duke. They beg to see her face since she is supposed to be so beautiful. After lifting her veil she disappears but in her haste drops the Royal document.

The Countess desires to see the Duke so Nannette helps her climb the ladder to the balcony. When the Duke awakes he comes out on the balcony for his morning exercise only to find her there.

He offers a bag of gold to the person who finds the Countess. Mme. Zenobie and her son have possession of the document and dress Nannette up telling the Duke they have found the Countess. But Reporello is there too, with Gitana. When Edmond, Mme. Zenobie's son, has his back turned Reporello takes the document which was in his pocket, then trying to make the puzzled Duke believe Gitana the Countess. The innkeeper finally succeeds.

The wedding day arrives. René and Nannette dress the real Countess in Nannette's clothes and she is married to the Duke. Then she shows them her face, the Duke being horrified to find her the same one that frightened him on the balcony by her ugliness. The Countess is very happy but the poor Duke is disconsolate.

The mysterious gypsy girl is discovered to be none other than Yvonne, the Countess' sister. In the end she and Henri, the Duke's nephew, are happily engaged. Likewise are Hilaire, the Duke's steward and Madelon, his daughter.

So the curtain falls on these three happy couples—but according to the Duke, only two.

SPOOKS

"Spooks"

"SPOOKS," a mystery farce in three acts, was the choice of the seniors for their class play; it was presented on November 15 and 16, 1934.

Members of the cast were Walter Jameson, as Elliot Butterfield, a rather impecunious young man; Mary Gill, as Marian Blackwell, a charming young lady of means; Harold Johnson, as Douglas Blackwell, who is after adventure; and Lorraine Waggoner, as Laurette Payne, delightful and frank. These four characters were cousins, coming to the old mansion of Simon Blackwell to comply with the will of old Simon that they remain in the house three nights before receiving their inheritance. Max Custer, as Sam, the frightened Negro boy, and Dorothy Deuell, as Judy, the old mute colored woman, intensify the sinister and creepy air of the house. Tom Hunter, as Silas Willoby, the old secretary, carried one of the most difficult character parts of the play. His role was not long, however, as in the first act an unseen hand strangled him. John Greer, as Inspector Ryan, in attempting to solve the mystery, was strangled by the same hand, this time in the presence of the four cousins. Hertzel Harrison, as the messenger, brought an important message, but was frightened away by the weird sounds which he heard. The arrival of Jean Klopfenstein, as Miss Brown, the nurse, and Irving Miller, as Officer Thompson, brought to a close the "hide-and-seek" game with the spooks, in a surprise climax in which Judy and Sam are discovered to be the creators of the ghostly sounds and movements occuring throughout the play.

The entire cast took their parts seriously, characterizing them in a manner worthy of praise. Their roles required much real acting, and enough credit cannot be expressed for their efforts.

DRAMATIC HONOR

Lettermen's Club

THE Lettermen's Club is an organization open to all boys having received letters in athletics at Peoria High School. This group was organized to promote clean play through all athletic activities and to increase school spirit.

In previous years the lettermen have been organized as a club and have engaged in activities suitable to the character of their organization. This year they have not been actively organized but exist as a group of athletes who have won their letters in various sports.

The Crest

THE 1935 Crest is, as ever before, the culmination of hours of preparatory work on the part of the staff and their able assistants. It is not a product like the character "Topsy" from the famous play, "Uncle Tom's Cabin," who "just growed up," and we are indebted to many people all of whose names cannot be mentioned in connection with its publication.

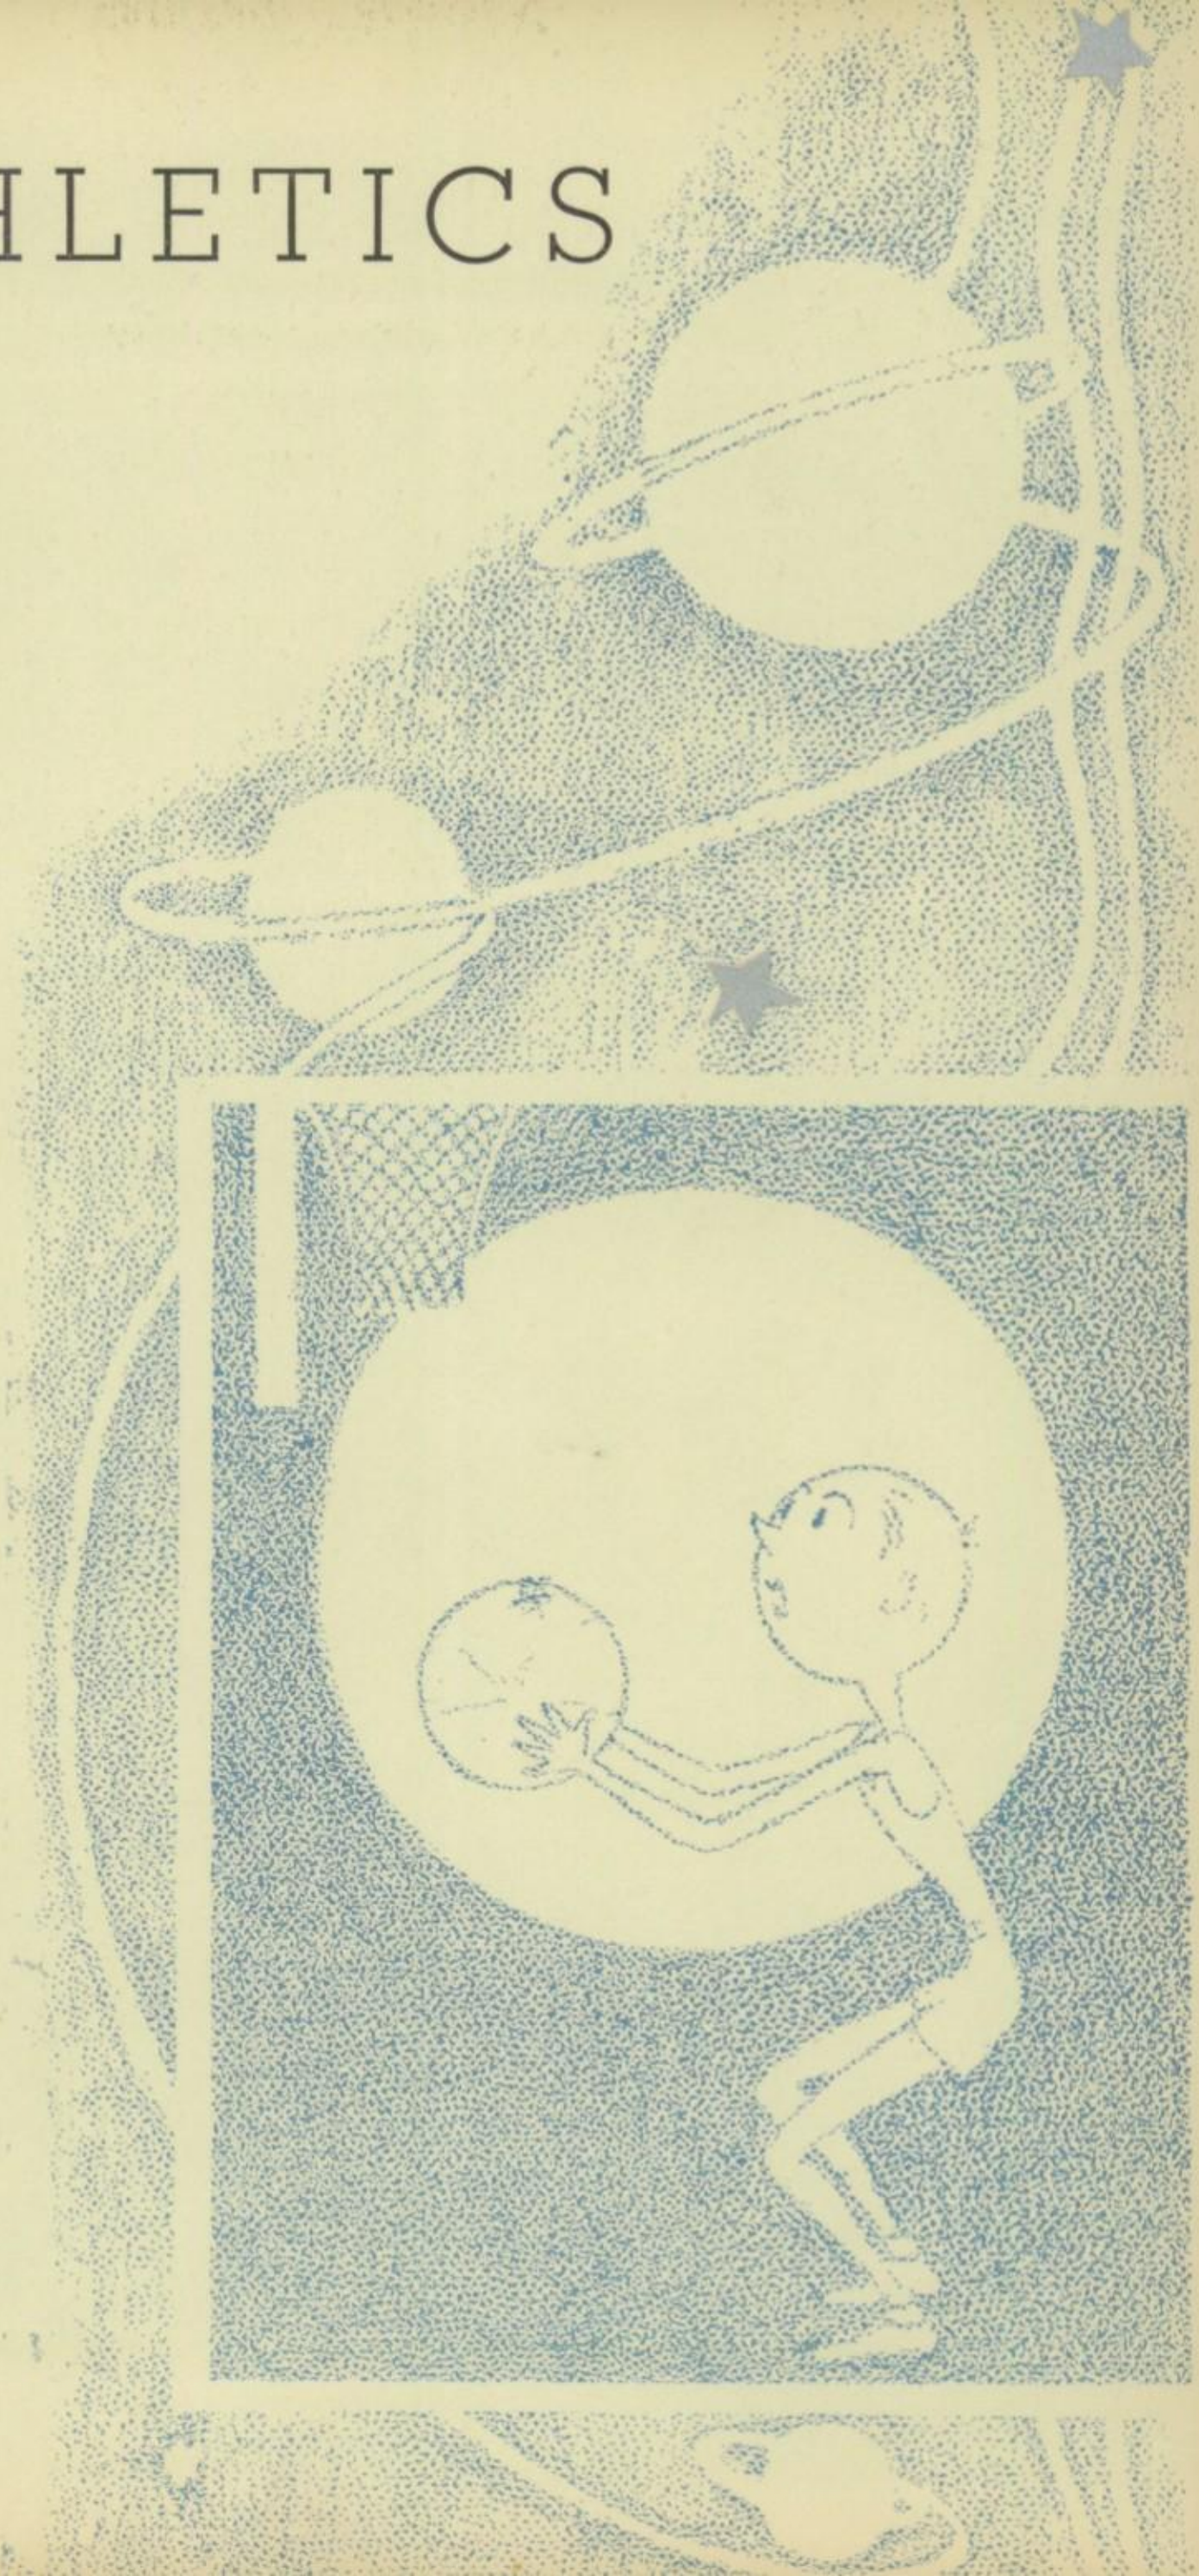
Chiefly, our thanks are due to Ernestine Frankel, Shirley Heller, Richard Killin, and John Canterbury, who frequently gave their time to assist in every way possible. We are also grateful to Charles Farnum, who so cleverly assisted Art Weers in all publicity; Ted Reese, assistant business manager; and Bob Leu who aided Ray Frazer with Athletics. With due appreciation we remember Mrs. Burkart for her fine photography and generous contributions to our book. Of course, we must not overlook "lizzie," Ellen June Thompson's Ford, which so enthusiastically responded to every call for staff service.

Miss Irene Bunch was responsible for our clever Crest assembly, which not only recalled the Crest of the past and present generations, but also pointed to the Crest in the future. We express our thanks to Martha Becker and Dorothy Hendrichs for their musical assistance to this assembly.

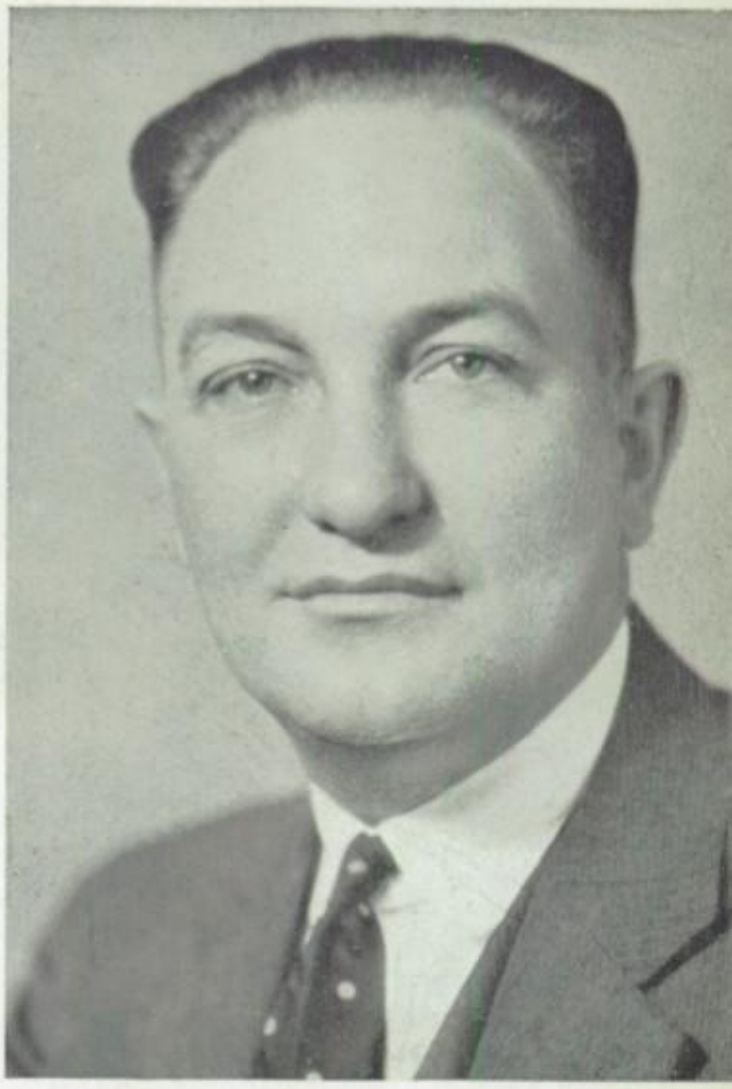
Our special thanks go to Miss Mahoney, Art Sponsor for the staff, and to Mr. Murphy, who has so ably guided our finances.

Space does not permit the inclusion of more names but there is one whose counsel, suggestions, experience, and ever-ready advice have directed us in this task and has made our work most enjoyable—who is none other than our beloved sponsor, Mrs. Hale.

ATHLETICS



MR. HERKE



THIS year we have the privilege of rendering just tribute to Coach Salen Herke on the completion of his nineteenth year of coaching at Peoria Central.

"Doc," as Mr. Herke is fondly known to students and fellow coaches, has become a tradition at Central, being admired by everyone who follows the athletics of Peoria High. "Doc" has turned out some of the finest athletic teams of the state, this year being no exception. Besides having an enviable coaching record, Mr. Herke has been honored by coaches in this district by being chosen representative to both state and national athletic rules conventions.

In addition to coaching football and basketball, "Doc" is athletic director and boys' gymnasium instructor.

We should well be proud of having Mr. Herke as our athletic mentor.

Athletic Coaches

HERE the combined board of Central's athletic strategists is shown mapping out headaches for ensuing opposition. In the last year Central has won three Big Twelve championships—swimming, golf and tennis—and has placed high in other sports in conference competition. No end of credit is due to these coaches for this splendid record.

Mr. English is the track coach, having starred as a track athlete in college. His track teams have made a very enviable record, having won several conference championships.

Mr. Myers, in addition to being one of the faculty, coaches tennis, and does a good job of it. Last year Peoria High topped the Big Twelve conference in tennis.

At Central the words "swimming team" and "Klingel" are used almost interchangeably. Although Coach Klingel is the youngest of the coaches, he has turned out three conference championship teams in the last four years.

Who will ever forget the pep meetings at which Coach "Pardon mah southern accent" Trimble spoke! He specializes in turning out winning baseball teams in addition to helping coach basketball and serving in the capacity of assistant athletic director.

SCHWARTZ

IT HAS been a standing custom of Peoria High that the letter men of a varsity team pick the captain of their team at the completion of the season. There is no captain during the season, but one or two members of the squad are voted "honorary captain" for their outstanding work on the team.

This year "Johnny" Schwartz was most deservedly chosen by the Maroon-clad warriors as the honorary captain of the football team. Having played outstanding football all season and having shown inspiring leadership at all times, Schwartz was the popular choice of his teammates for this important position.

Football—1934

ALTHOUGH the record of three wins, five losses and two ties does not indicate a very successful football season, the record is deceiving. It does not show the fighting spirit of a green team that lacked only experience to make it a consistent winner.

The season opened with Kingman affording the first opposition to the Maroons. Central took advantage of the breaks and then played straight football to win 26-0.

Central's first reverse came at the hands of the highly touted Kewanee "Boiler Makers." Central battled valiantly but could not withstand Kewanee's superior power, and succumbed 19-0.

The following Saturday Coach Herke took a badly battered team to Urbana. A few bad breaks that Urbana quickly took advantage of gave them a hard fought 19-0 victory.

A discouraged and bruised Central team then showed Streator no great opposition and lost a night game 14-0 on Streator's own field.

Central playing its first intra-city game with Spalding gained a moral victory by holding a strong Spalding team to a 6-6 tie. The Spalding game served as a stimulus, and Springfield's state-championship team could only win by pushing over a touchdown in the last fifteen seconds of play; the score was 6-0.

Another tough-luck game was lost to Pekin by a 14-12 score when two extra point conversions failed for Central.

The Illinois School for the Deaf bowed to Peoria in a morning game to the score of 19-6, being outclassed in every phase of the game.

The following Saturday a well-earned victory over Decatur gave the Maroons hopes of getting a victory over their arch-rival, Manual, but the south-side eleven played brilliant football to win the turkey day game by a 19-0 score.

The following boys received football letters this year: Richards, Parker, R. Anderson, Rapp, Krantz, Batchelder, Eignus, Richardson, Stevenson, Bouton, Stutzman, Hamilton, Mier, Tuntas, Ashley, Schwartz, Farnum, Bechtel, Waca, Neal.

Swimming—1934-35

WON SIX LOST TWO

In recent years swimming has been considered a major sport due to the great interest that has been shown it. Under the able guidance of Coach Allen Klingel, the swimming team captured its third conference championship in four years. Regardless of the fact that there were only two returning lettermen on the squad from last year, the underclassmen filled in to make a championship team.

The squad won six out of eight dual meets, won the conference championship and placed in the state meet. With an array of returning lettermen, the prospects of lengthening the chain of conference championships are hopeful.

GRANT ANDERSON

GRANT ANDERSON was unanimously elected captain of this year's conference championship team. For the past two years Grant has been rated as one of the best free style swimmers in the state, having set a state record for the 100-yard free style race in his junior year. A further attempt at lowering this record this year at the state meet was made impossible because of a severe case of scarlet fever that Grant contracted a few days before the meet. However, he set a new conference record in the 100-yard free style and tied his old 40-yard free style mark in the annual Big Twelve meet held this year in Peoria. Grant proved to be a real leader for the team this year.

The above relay team composed of Ritchie Anderson, Jim Dailey, Tom Melody and Art Szold won the conference championship. They splashed ahead of a field of the best teams in the Big Twelve to win. Another group that more than deserves mention is the Medley Relay team composed of Chuck Gardner, back stroker; Joe Batchelder, breast stroker and Grant Anderson, free styler. These three won their event and set a new conference record, an accomplishment which is a real feat. Chuck Gardner of the Medley team won first place in the 100-yard back stroke event, which was also material in winning the coveted championship trophy.

CHET HANLIN

PEORIA CENTRAL this year boasts the privilege of having the State Fancy Diving Champion in a likeable sophomore, Chet Hanlin.

"Chet" gained this distinction by "out diving" a field of twenty-five of the state's best prep-school divers at the annual state swimming meet held at Northwestern University.

Starting out the season as a rookie, "Chet" developed rapidly until he gained an unheralded first place in the Big Twelve conference meet here. The following week, with hopes high, he showed the state's finest that he was "the champ of them all."

With two more years of swimming left for "Chet" at Central, it is hoped that he will retain his championship form in order to bring more glory to his school and to himself.

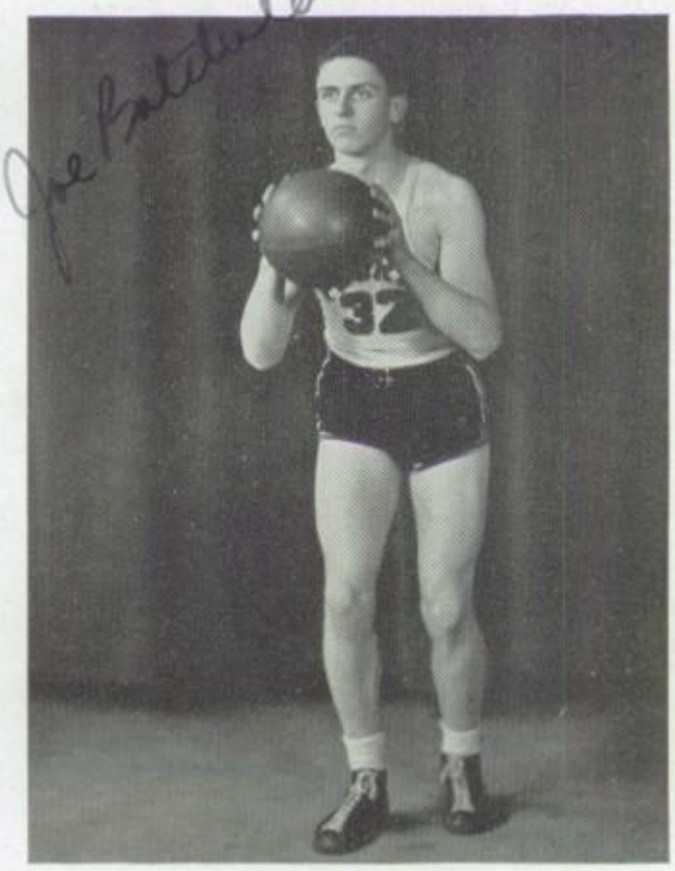
Basketball—1934-1935

WON TWENTY-FOUR LOST EIGHT

THE 1934-35 basketball team enjoyed a very successful season, winning twenty-four games and losing eight. This record includes the winning of the Elmwood district tournament and the Ottawa sectional tournament. In the state tournament Central won the first round contest by defeating its Big Twelve rival, Danville, by a decisive 40-22 score before a large crowd; they dropped the second round contest 45-28 to the runner-up of the state tournament, Thornton High.



JOE BATCHELDER

During the Christmas vacation Central won consolation honors at the Pontiac invitational tournament by defeating Dwight, Normal and Kewanee after losing the opening game to last year's state champs, Quincy. Joe Batchelder and Carl Schunk were elected co-captains of the team by the following lettermen: Bob Leu, John Tuntas, Deane Richardson, Art Shelton, Bernie Hackett, Jim Render and Bill Pinkney. Leu, Tuntas, Richardson, and Shelton are juniors returning for next year's squad.

Joe Batchelder, Central's husky center, was paired off with Carl Schunk as co-captain this year. Joe was chosen All-Pontiac tournament guard, all-city center, All-Big Twelve second team center, and was the leading scorer of the city. His play under the basket was the outstanding feature of both his offensive and defensive work. Being a good leader and colorful player on the floor at all times, Joe well deserved the honors he received.

LEU

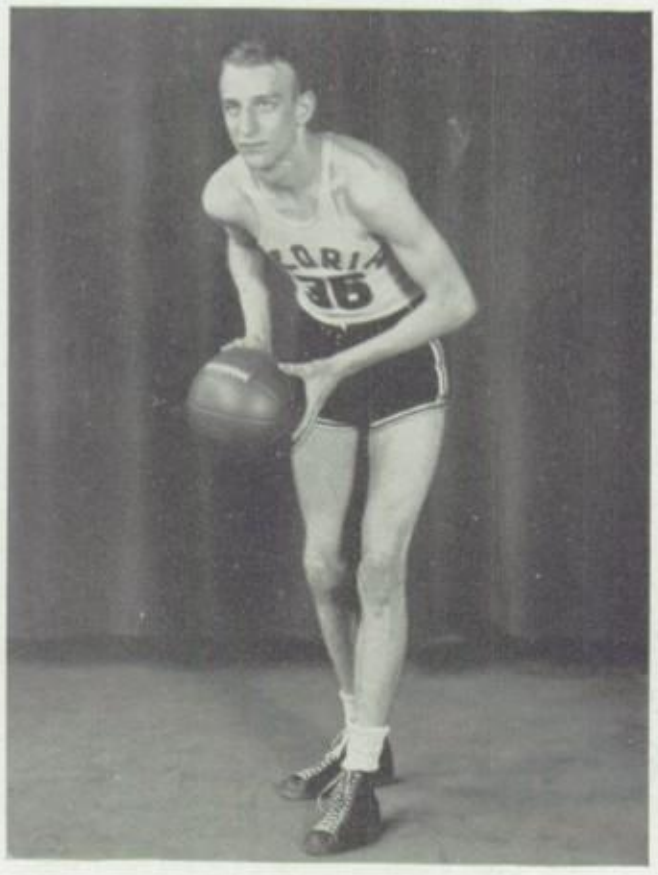
RICHARDSON

SHELTON

BOB LEU—Bob played a forward position this year after serving a year on the reserve squad. His accurate basket shooting and cool playing made him one of the important factors in Central's high scoring team. Since Bob is a junior, he will be back next year and should prove to be even a more valuable player than he was this.

JOHN TUNTAS — John started the season as a sub, but he improved so much that by mid-season he was playing a regular position. "Red" was valuable because of his height and accurate basket shooting and should be one of the main cogs of the team next year. As he will be eligible only the first semester, it will be very difficult to find someone to fill his shoes successfully.



CARL SCHUNK

DEANE RICHARDSON—Deane showed everyone what true fight is. He was in the game battling every inch of the way for his school, and his "never - say - die" spirit pulled more than one game out of the fire for the Maroons. Deane is a junior and played guard this year. Because of his speed and smooth playing he will no doubt be one of the mainstays for next year's squad.

ART SHELTON — Art played both guard and center during the course of the season. He had the "stuff" and saw much service, especially in crucial games, such as the Manual and Quincy games. Art is tall and rangy and with a little more experience is certain to win either a center or guard position regularly next year.

CARL SCHUNK, the "blonde pretzel," in reward for his wonderful defensive and offensive playing this year, was chosen co-captain of this year's basketball team. Carl's phenomenal eye for the basket from long range won countless games for the team. Carl won a forward position on the all-city team but was not chosen on any other honorary team because of a severe stomach ailment that handicapped him in mid-season. Schunk's all around playing for the last three years has labeled him one of Central's basketball greats.

Track Team—1934

THE track team compiled a very good record for 1934. Under the able guidance of Mr. English it again won the Greater Peoria meet and placed well in five other meets. "Clancy" Hinton was captain of the team not only because of his popularity with everyone on the squad but also because of his remarkable ability as a track man. He set two new school records, in the javelin, and the broad jump, to conclude his prep school career here at Peoria High.

Central participated in five major meets and one dual meet. The Annual High School Indoor Track-Meet sponsored by Central could not be held last year but this meet will be continued in the future. The following seniors received letters: Captain Hinton, Gamble, Mitchell, and Serkowich.

With the following experienced lettermen returning, a championship team is in sight for 1935: Ashley, Gibbons, Hahn, Seiler, Pendola, and H. Thompson. The season's record:

1st place—(24 Annual) Greater Peoria at Peoria

4th place—(10 Annual) Big Twelve at Urbana

3rd place—(9 Annual) District at Pekin

2nd place—(1 Annual) Quintet at Pekin

3rd place—(2 Annual) Novice at Springfield Division

Second Row—Farrar, Bartleson, Bouton, Co-captain Tincher, Co-captain Dent, Shelton, Hensley.

First Row—Lyttleton, Barker, Lewis.

Baseball—1934

A RECORD of five victories and seven defeats sums up the baseball activities of last year. With but three returning lettermen, the team lacked the experience necessary for consistent winning. After a slow start the squad improved rapidly, and by the end of the season, they were showing their real strength.

Johnny Tincher and Lloyd Dent were elected co-captains having played well and having shown plenty of fight for three years while on the team. Dent played first base and Tincher played in the outfield.

Of last year's squad Farrar, Bartelson, Lyttleton, Hensley, Shelton, and Bouton are back to give Central's opponents plenty of trouble for '35. The season's record:

*Central 15—Kingman 5	Central 3—Manual 14

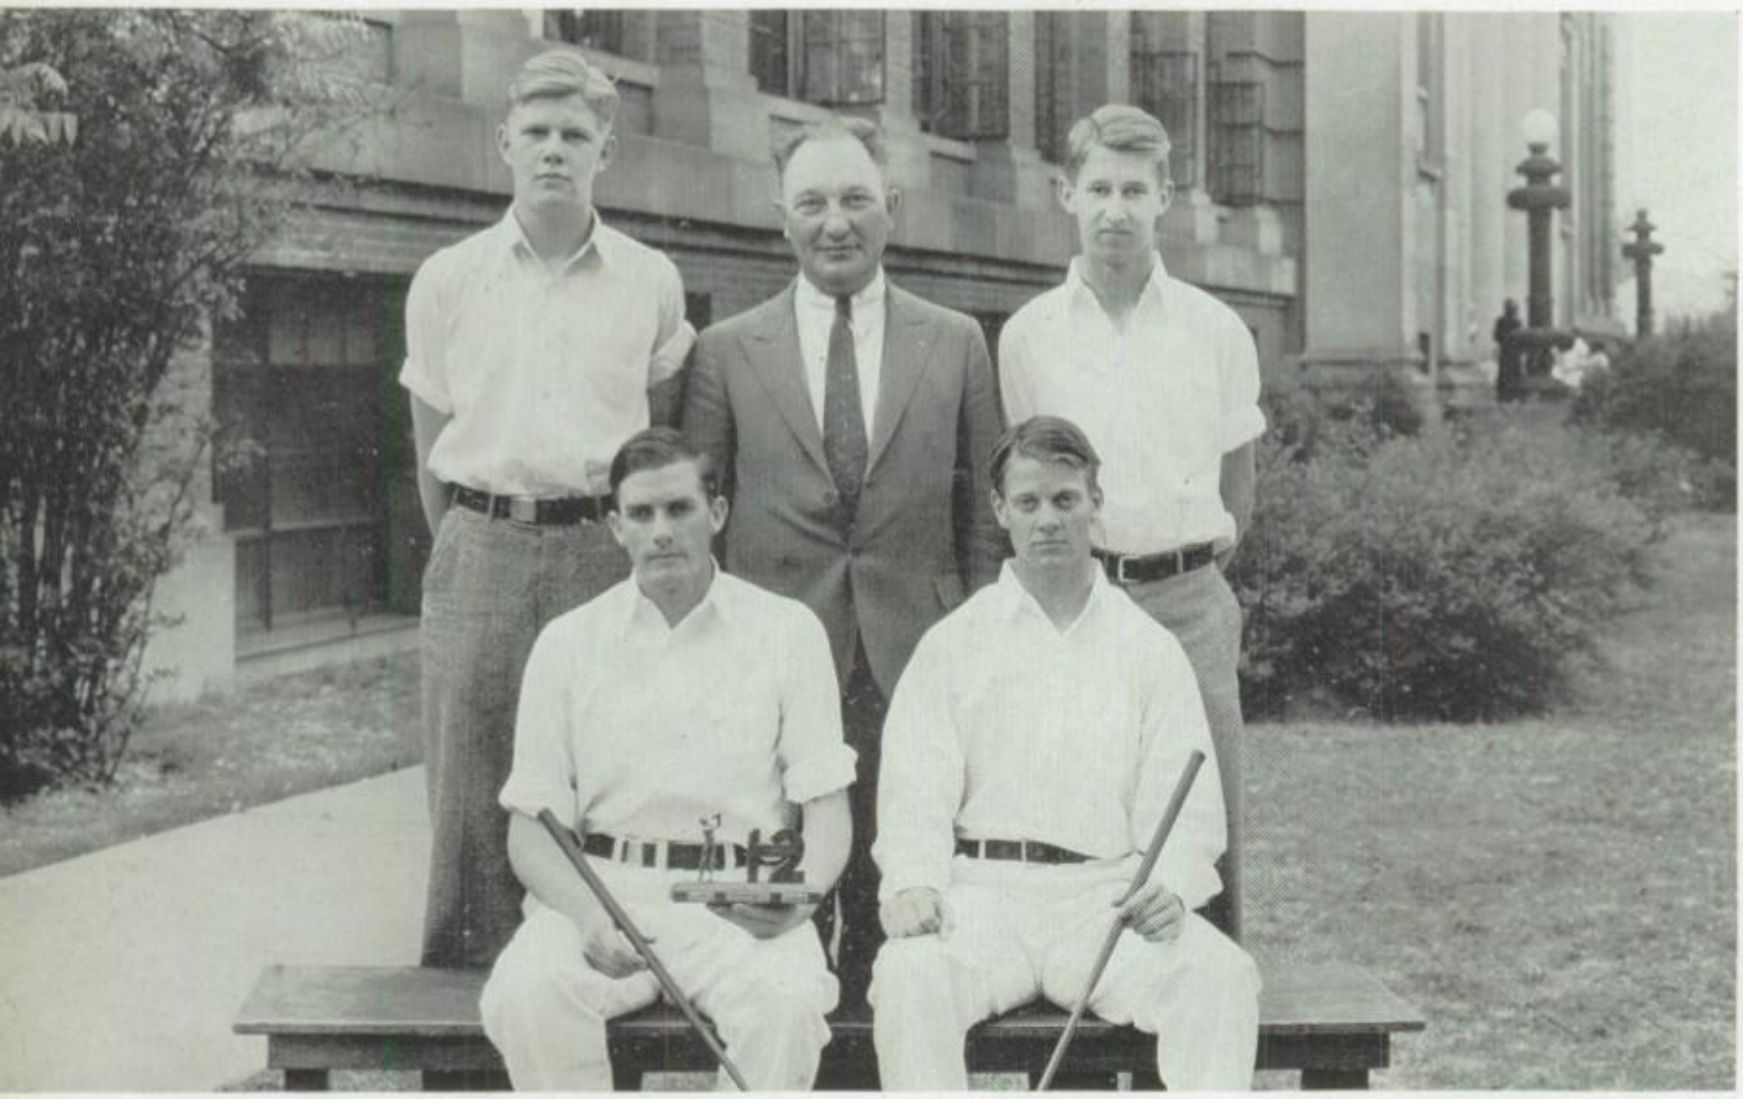
* Several practice games were also played with the Bradley College freshman team.



Back Row—Voss, Coach Herke, Brown.

Golf—1934

THE 1934 golf team was one of the finest in Central's history. It won nine matches, lost only two and tied one. In addition to this, the Big Twelve golf crown was won by Central and the third place individual title of the state was won by captain Bob Hill.

The number one and two men of the squad, Bob Hill and Andy Brown, were among the top flight golfers of the city and they more than proved their metal with their steady playing. Andy won the Big Twelve individual golf title and Hill placed third in both the Big Twelve and the state meet. Chuck Farnum and Ed Voss, who were the underclassmen of the squad, showed a great deal of ability and should do well this year. The season's record:

Central 9½—Pekin 2½	Central 9½—Spalding 3½
Central 8½—Bloomington 3½	Central 7½—Kingman 4½
Central 11 —Kingman 1	Central 5 —Manual 7

Top Row — Athletic Director Herke, Stacy, Pinkney, Powers, Manager Moran, Coach Myers.

Tennis—1934

A FINE record of nine victories, one tie, and two defeats was made by the 1934 tennis team. The team shared the city championship with Spalding, and laid claim to the Big Twelve Title.

Captain Bob Sively was named by sports critics as one of the four best high school tennis players in the state because of the fact that he won the Big Twelve Singles Championship, the District Singles Championship, and gained the semi-final round of the State Tournament before he was eliminated.

Bernie Powers, Bill Pinkney, and Dick Cody more than won their share of matches during the year. Cody in the singles and Powers and Pinkney in the doubles reached the quarter-finals of the Big Twelve before they were defeated.

In the District meet Powers reached the semi-finals of the singles before he was eliminated as did Pinkney and Cody in the doubles.

With lettermen, Bill Pinkney, Charles Spencer, and Dick Cody, back for 1935, Coach Myers again expects a winning combination. The season's record:

Cheerleaders

In every school the job of keeping up the school's athletic spirit falls upon the cheerleaders. This year the cheerleaders kept up the traditional Central spirit by their activities at both games and pep meetings. Ray Fraser was the senior cheerleader with Harold Feigenbaum and Bill Hart as junior cheerleaders. John Martin, Perry Kempster, and George Munstedt were underclassmen who showed ability in their work.

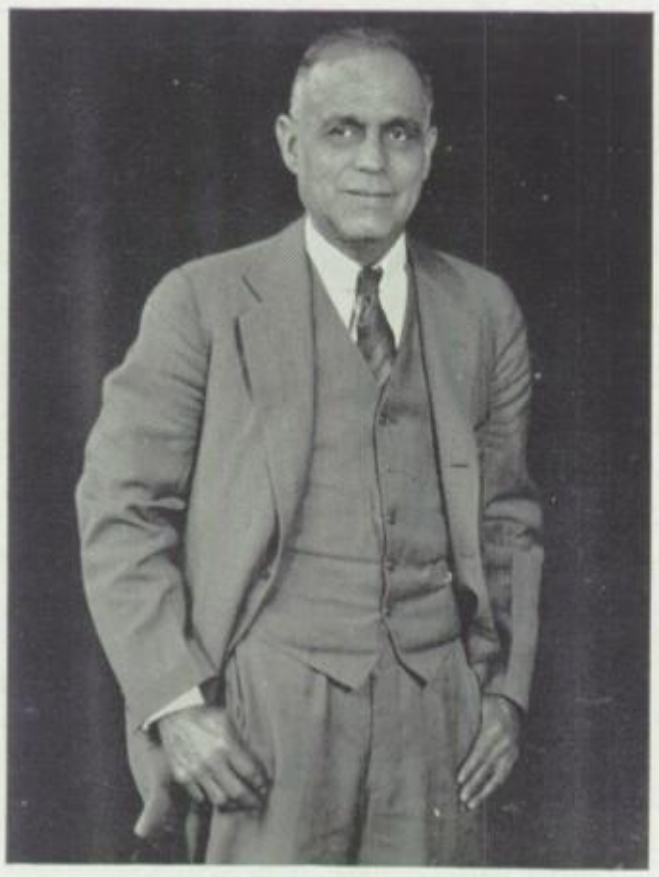
Athletic Managers

To the managers go all the inglorious jobs of mending equipment, cleaning shoes, straightening up the locker room, keeping a check on uniforms, and doing innumerable other hard tasks. These boys work hard and deserve more credit than is usually granted them.

The equipment of each sport is taken care of by a head manager and his assistants. Trainer Bill Conway has charge over these boys. At the end of three years of hard work, managers are awarded their letters.



TRAINER BILL CONWAY

Wm. S. Conway

After nineteen years of service as general handyman of the locker room, journalist deluxe, extemporaneous orator, and athletic trainer we feel that a just tribute should be made to "Soap-suds" Bill Conway. Bill holds sway over the locker room equipment and keeps this in good condition. He also accompanies the team on trips in order to give the boys a last minute rub-down or to aid in relieving minor injuries that might come to a player during the course of a game; consequently, the boys of the locker room have a deep respect for Bill's abilities.

Girls' Athletic Association

THE Girls' Association, since it was founded in 1916, has grown from a very small number to a membership of over one hundred girls, all of whom are interested in some phase of athletics. This year, for the first time, the Association became a member of the State Girls' Athletic Association. This fact has made local membership more inviting to the girls. Besides stimulating interest in athletics, the Athletic Association aims to standardize and promote ideas of health and sportsmanship. This is done through organized sports, hikes and social activities.

The association as a whole is based on an adapted point system. Points are given for activities both in school and outside of school. A very attractive gold G.A.A. pin is awarded for six hundred points, while a school letter is given for one thousand two hundred points. Besides these two awards, the state association presents two awards, one for one thousand six hundred and one for two thousand points, that any girl would be proud to have earned.

Social activity is also a part of the G.A.A. program. Parties, steak fries, hikes are planned which afford fellowship for all. Members not only have the athletic, but also social, benefits offered by the association. The officers of the Girl's Athletic Association for this year consist of President, Maxine Abel; Vice-President, Burdella Stilley; Secretary, Jane Dallam; Treasurer, Belle Stambaugh. The association has gained much this year because of the splendid leadership of these officers.

The letter girls, although they have no special organization of their own, act as an advisory group. Along with the officers and faculty sponsor, they constitute the Advisory Board. The association and school esteem these girls, since only those girls earn letters who have shown good sportsmanship and are good students and good athletes.

Girls' Athletic Association

THE different seasons of the year bring volleyball, basketball, baseball, track, tennis, and ping pong tournaments. These are sponsored by G.A.A. During basketball season, which is probably the most popular, twelve to fourteen teams ordinarily take part, with approximately ninety-five girls playing. Volleyball and baseball prove to be almost as popular.

Tennis has its place in the spring, both for G.A.A. members and the tennis team. The team is made up of four girls, two singles and a doubles team. Much recognition should be given the girls' tennis team for, in the past two years, they have won all their matches played with other schools. The following girls were members of the team this year: Evelyn Haller, captain; Clarice Younglove, Lois Miller, and Burdella Stilley. Besides these tennis honors, we also received honor for the first time in basketball, since the girls who participated in the State Basketball Schooling Contest won third place in our District.

The Physical Education Department, directed by Miss Phyllis Long, offers an interesting and varied program to all girls who are required to take the two years of Physical Education. Miss Long's untiring efforts and her own individual skill make her an understanding G.A.A. sponsor and efficient director of Physical Education. Tumbling, apparatus work, track, soccer, sports, dancing, group games, and posture work fill the year with new and interesting activity. Besides these activities, outside bowling and swimming classes are arranged for those interested. Consequently, the girls' gym is one of the liveliest spots in the building.

Glad to get back to school even though it was fun over the holidays . . .

Miss Edwardine Sperling has been appointed to fill the vacancy left by the death of Miss Florence Cutright . . .

Y. A. Heghin has the sympathy of the faculty and student body at the death of both of his little girls during the Christmas vacation . . .

Jusendra presented its first matinee performance this year with "The Touchdown." Dorothy Jane Deuell was the student director . . .

An exciting game was lost to Manual by a close margin. Better luck next time, fellows . . .

Captain Grant Anderson has been an important man in our swimming contests of late. The team severely beat Champaign in a 43 to 17 score . . .

Have you noticed the new faces around school, 128 of them? . . .

Have you noticed the interviews in the Opinion with Kay Kyser and Coach Trimble, Clark Gable and Marion Putnam and others?

February

Well! now that the semester exams are over we can breathe freely and begin all over again to study . . .

We had the high score in a thrilling swimming meet with the Western Academy team . . .

A request for a repetition of the morning Cue Club's play "Weiners on Wednesday" has been given at Franklin School. Miss Mamie McGrath is Cue Club's sponsor and Katherine Bear was the student director . . .

A Cappella Choir sings at P.T.A. meeting under the direction of Miss Katherine Jackson . . .

Diplomas given to 14 seniors here; we're sorry to see you go! . . .

Bob Leu has a sensational interview with the Real McCoy . . .

Lorraine Waggoner, Charles Iben, Audrey Bunting, Deva Galvin, John Greer, and Walter Jameson were among the nine chosen to play the third performance of the Junior Players production, "A Lucky Break." . . .

Did you ever hear of so many people with measles? . . .

I believe the chaperons had as much fun as the seniors at our Senior Hop. It was a great success!

March

Presidential election! We've never seen so many candidates. Our best wishes go to Harold Feigenbaum and Henry Meredith . . .

Dorothy Jane Deuell won first place in dramatic reading and a scholarship at McMurray College; we're proud of you! . . .

Work on the Crest progresses as the "zephyr" moves along . . .

Margaret Lund, Deva Galvin, and Lorraine Waggoner take first places in the Intra-Central speech contest. Doreen Young, Dorothy Cation, and Betty Jean Adams also placed . . .

Col. Vesey Walker was honorary conductor of the Peoria high band in a special assembly. Fred Gedge played a flute solo . . .

One of our best dramatic productions of the year was given under the direction of Mr. Epstein and Miss Katherine Jackson; it was the operetta, "Marriage of Nannette." Miss Alice Carey played the accompaniment . . .

An amusing hour was spent in the auditorium when J. W. Zellenor did some very clever imitation acts. Remember Mrs. Finkelstein? . . .

Did you ever know so much studying could ever pile up? . . .

What a team! Our basketball team played in the State tournament in Champaign and made a fine showing . . .

April

In the spring a young student's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love! Maybe that's why we see so many couples in the halls . . .

A special matinee dance was given in the boy's gym to the tune of Chuck Cartwright's orchestra. A good dance . . .

A good looking couple were Jack Carney and Betty Jean Adams who led the Junior Prom. Couples dancing, pretty dresses, a good orchestra, and pleasing chaperones all contributed to its success . . .

"The Tavern" was the play chosen for the Jusendra spring production. Praise is to be given to Mr. Huber Sammis, the director, and John Greer, the lead, and all the cast . . .

Contests this month galore! Honors to band in the contest at Springfield April 6. Macomb speech contests—more honors for P.H.S. . . . Lorraine Waggoner, Margaret Lund, Max Custer, and Isabel Anicker placed . . .

The baseball season opens with a double header April 13 playing Dunlap and Princeville at Dunlap. Our team has been practicing every night under the direction of Coach Claude Trimble . . .

Do you remember what fun we had watching the teachers play the post grads in a basketball tussle? . . .

May

Come on, come on, oh—That was some track meet! A few of our many stars were Ashley, Kempster, and Defenbaugh . . .

With the coming of summer we have been having many picnics and weiner roasts. Senior National Honor and Charvice each held picnics . . .

The Music Festival was held in Pekin this year. Miss "Kate" Jackson directed the singers. Do, re, me, fa . . .

Senior Class had a special meeting about graduation plans . . .

Hot dogs! Soda pop! Candy! Coney Island? No. The grade school Field Day, held at P.H.S. athletic field . . .

Term papers due—Ouch! . . .

Annual banquet held by French Club was combined with Manual and Kingman in a grand and glorious dinner . . .

Event of the year was on the twenty-seventh when the Crest came out. The halls were filled with Crest signers—Oh's! Ah's! What a book!

June

Warm weather and school is nearly out! I think the seniors will all agree in saying that we'll certainly miss old P.H.S. . . .

For the first time in the history of P.H.S. graduation exercises are on the athletic field . . .

The beautiful Baccalaureate service and the Senior picnic are about the last times that the seniors will be together . . .

Just ask the teachers how hard it is to get students to work these last couple weeks . . .

There was a great deal of "cramming" for the final examinations. Oh! my head! The intelligent students didn't have to take the exams . . .

School's out and our job is over. Goodbye!

Horoscope for January

PERSONS born in this month are serious, practical and economical. Although often beset by obstacles and disappointments in early life, they are never entirely discouraged, and through painstaking persistence rise to some position of prominence in their work and community. They succeed best in the employ of others with large corporations and vast undertakings, as they may be depended upon to carry out the minutest details of their particular work. In business for themselves the hazard of success intensifies their tendency to be melancholy, thus retarding progress. They are quite fixed in their ideas and do not take to out-of-the-ordinary beliefs, preferring to accept established ideas and demonstrable facts.

Horoscope for February

ACCORDING to astrology persons born in this month are determined, quiet, patient, intellectual, generous and dignified. They are good judges of character, but being easily influenced by kindness they should exercise discretion in the selection of their friends. They are fond of music, art, scenery and literature. They dislike being ordered about and positively will not be driven. They are slow to anger and very independent. They inspire trust by their equable dispositions and can be depended upon. They delight in giving pleasure to others and have a great love for all humanitarian undertakings. They make excellent teachers, gifted with illustrative utterances to the understanding of children and adults. They are splendid in politics where they can cater to the masses.

Horoscope for March

THE sensational side of their nature is developed in persons born in March, tending to bring all matter of feeling to the fore. They are kind and loving, easy-going, adaptable, idealistic and imaginative. Being receptive to impressions, and too easily influenced, they are apt to mold themselves to circumstances rather than compel things to their will. They are hospitable, sensitive and have self-esteems but are lacking in confidence and should be cautious in the selection of friends. They are orderly, precise, have natural ability in arts, and make excellent nurses, decorators and actors of emotional parts. They are prone to sarcasm, and are timid and bold alternately. They should strive to overcome the tendency to worry.

Horoscope for April

THEY are leaders: headstrong and impulsive, full of enterprise and new ideas. They possess much mental and physical energy, dislike subordination to others. Their success depends upon the incorporation of tact in addition to their natural qualities of leadership. They possess a keen love of justice, are quick to resent abuse and will defend those they believe unjustly treated but they do not hold grudges. They think along scientific lines and can map and work out future operations. They are always aiming at higher modes of life and they are always the pioneers in all new fields of endeavor. Architects, designers and promoters of new ideas in everything are numerous in this sign.

Horoscope for May

PEOPLE born in May have self-reliance, determination and perseverance plus stability and firmness. They act cautiously, accepting new ideas slowly and are apt to be creatures of habit. When unprovoked they are gentle, but furious when angered. They are great lovers of art, music, and literature. They are faithful friends, fearless and generous and excellent company for those possessing original ideas. Success is gained through a steady building capacity. Being trustworthy they make excellent members of governing bodies; many are chosen by the people as their representatives. They are good at executive work and best suited to handling affairs as brokers, bankers, public undertakings or as managers of workers in large institutions.

Horoscope for July

Daisy

PERSONS born in July are of a quiet, sensitive disposition, conscientious and easy-going. They have good general business ability; are versatile and somewhat changeable. Being naturally cautious they do not show their real character and appear somewhat conventional, dreading disapproval or public criticism. They like to be appreciated and yearn for sympathy. In personal matters they become emotional, romantic and superstitious; they harbor fancied slights and their feelings are easily hurt. They are industrious and prudent. They have excellent memories and love to dwell on past events. They are fond of dramatizing their own actions, hence they make splendid actors. They have a keen sense of humor.

Horoscope for August

PERSONS born during this month are determined, ardent and ambitious. They are capable of organizing, managing and directing others. Their natural leadership makes subordination to others impossible. They are frank, free and inclined to be too outspoken, tending to much argument. They are sincere in their affections and genuinely warm-hearted and especially dependent on affection and harmonious relations. They are generous and popular and lavish in the expenditure of vitality and are happiest in positions of trust, responsibility and usefulness to the world. They usually keep their affairs concerning love and finance to themselves and by quiet determination rise above their problems.

Horoscope for September

PERSONS born in September are tactful, refined and industrious; inclined to be critical, analytical and somewhat unsympathetic. They have keen intellect and learn readily and seem to blend the ideal with the practical. There is a tendency to become materialistic, carrying the practice too far into petty detail. Though there may be occasional outbursts of temper they are rarely fighters; they are too intellectual to want anything but arbitration. They adapt themselves to almost any environment. They are pure in diction and grammatically correct, orderly and precise. A great many distinguished lawyers are born in this sign. They are natural chemists, dietitians, and make excellent doctors.

Horoscope for December

PERSONS born in December are sincere, frank, humane and benevolent. They are intuitive and prophetic and have no patience with beating around the bush, aiming always to come to the point. There may be a tendency to act impulsively and speak hastily and although fond of change and a bit restless they are able to complete lengthy and difficult tasks. They do not use unnecessary words and are economists of time and energy. They accomplish much while others are meditating and weighing matters. They love freedom and liberty and dislike being ordered about. They are great lovers of the out-of-doors and many athletes are born in this sign. They are philosophical and respecters of religion but seldom have one of their own.

The Ten Commandments of P. H. S.

I. Thou shalt not flunk, for if thou flunkest, thou canst not graduate.
II. Droppest thou not thy candy paper in the halls for the Prefects will not hold him guiltless who droppeth refuse in the halls.
III. Chew not thy gum in school for verily the fountains and desk bottoms are full of gum which students have chewed.
IV. Gyp thou not thy daily classes or on thee will fall the wrath of J. H. B.
V. Write not thy notes nor roll marbles in study hall else the hand of thy dear teacher on thee falleth.
VI. Talk not noisily in assemblies for verily I say, thou wilt suddenly find thyself in the office.
VII. Honor thy teachers' commands that thy days may be long in the building which J. H. Brewer ruleth.
VIII. Be thou not late to thy school exceeding thrice or thou wilt surely find thyself in "Tardy Clinic."
IX. Linger not in the flivvers of shieks lest thou wish to be expelled.
X. Covet not thy classmates' knowledge for he who copies must flunk, (if caught).

We Are Known For Our Fine Diamonds

Gifts of the Ages

The combination of precious metals, precious stones, and wonderful workmanship, such as ours, have comprised the most beautiful gifts for centuries.

Jewelry is cheaper today. Never before were we in a position to offer greater values in diamonds. Come in and get our prices.

We specialize in watch and jewelry repairing, as we are manufacturers and can offer the lowest prices.

BROWN'S BUSINESS COLLEGE

PEORIA ILLINOIS

What Builds Business?

The building that the store occupies? Its location? The things it sells? The people who sell them?

Yes, but much more.

The system under which the store operates?

Its method of dealing? Its presentation of the store in display and advertising?

Yes, and still more.

Its courtesies and hospitalities? Its adjustments when service or merchandise goes wrong? Its capacity to serve in all tests?

Yes, all these, and yet something more.

The SPIRIT of the store, of its builders, its workers, and its service!
